HEARING DECISION FOR CONCURRENT BENEFITS
INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9 and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on April 23, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving the FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on October 18, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having received concurrent program benefits and, as such, allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
4. On the Assistance Application signed by Respondent on September 14, 2016, Respondent did not answer the question about her intent to stay in Michigan.
5. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in her residence to the Department.
6. Respondent had no apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
7. Respondent began using FAP benefits outside of the State of Michigan beginning in February 27, 2017.
8. The OIG indicates that the time period they are considering the fraud period is June 2017 through August 2017 (fraud period).
9. During the alleged fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from the State of Michigan.
10. During the alleged fraud period, Respondent was issued $ [REDACTED] of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits from the State of Florida.
11. SNAP is the name used by the State of Florida for its food assistance program similar to Michigan's FAP.
12. No evidence was presented that Respondent had committed a previous IPV.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2017), pp. 5, 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and

- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (October 2016), pp. 7-8; BAM 720, p.1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV because she received FAP benefits from the State of Michigan at the same time she received SNAP benefits from the State of Florida. SNAP benefits are the equivalent of FAP benefits in the State of Florida. A person cannot receive FAP in more than one state for any month. BEM 222 (July 2013), p. 3. A person commits an IPV if she is found by administrative hearing process to have made a fraudulent statement or representation regarding her identity or residence in order to receive multiple FAP benefits simultaneously. BEM 203 (October 2015), p. 1.

The Department also alleges that Respondent committed an IPV by failing to report a change in residency. To be eligible for FAP benefits issued by the Department, a person must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (January 2016), p. 1. For FAP purposes, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for any purpose other than a vacation, even if she has no intent to remain in the state permanently or indefinitely. BEM 220, p. 1. A client who resides outside the State of Michigan for more than 30 days is not eligible for FAP benefits issued by the State of Michigan. BEM 212 (October 2015), p. 3.

In support of its IPV allegations, the Department presented (i) a FAP application Respondent submitted to the Department on September 14, 2016, in which she provided a Michigan mailing address but listed herself as homeless (Exhibit A, pp. 10-37); (ii) an email communication between the Regulation Agent and the State of Florida regarding Respondent's receipt of Florida SNAP benefits between June 17, 2017, and September 19, 2017, (Exhibit A, p. 44); (iii) an IG-311 Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) History showing that Respondent used her Michigan FAP benefits in Michigan for a period but then in Florida from February 27, 2017, through July 18, 2017 (Exhibit A, pp. 48-59); and (iv) a Benefit Summary Inquiry showing Michigan FAP benefits issued to Respondent from November 2016 through August 2017 (Exhibit A, pp. 46-47).

The evidence presented establishes that Respondent applied for Michigan-issued FAP benefits on September 14, 2016, began using her Michigan-issued FAP benefits outside of Michigan in February 2017, and began receiving SNAP benefits in Florida beginning

June 17, 2017. The Department did not present any evidence of communications, applications, or other representations during the fraud period made to Michigan or to Florida about her residency during the fraud period. The Respondent must have made a fraudulent statement or representation regarding her identity or residence in order to receive food assistance benefits in multiple states to be disqualified for concurrent receipt of benefits. BEM 203, p. 1. Therefore, the Department has not shown that Respondent is subject to an IPV for receipt of concurrent benefits. BEM 203, p. 1.

However, the evidence shows that Respondent was no longer a resident of the State of Michigan, but instead a resident of Florida as shown by her EBT spending history and receipt of Florida-issued SNAP benefits. The length of time that she used her Michigan benefits in Florida in conjunction with the period of time in which she received concurrent benefits is sufficient to establish Respondent's intentional decision not to inform the Department of her move. Considering all of the evidence together, the Respondent failed to update her address with the Department as required so that she could continue receiving Michigan-issued FAP benefits. Therefore, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent has committed an IPV based upon her failure to report a change in residence to the Department.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for 10 years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

As discussed above, the Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV through concurrent receipt of FAP benefits from Michigan and Florida. However, the Department established that Respondent committed an IPV by failing to report a change in her residence. No evidence was presented of a previous IPV. Accordingly, she is subject to a one-year disqualification from receipt of FAP benefits.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (October 2015), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

In this case, the Department alleged a $ [REDACTED] OI during the fraud period based on Respondent's concurrent receipt of benefits and receipt of benefits without Michigan residency from June 2017 through August 2017. Respondent was not eligible for FAP benefits issued by the State of Michigan during any period she received food assistance benefits issued by the State of Florida. BEM 222, p. 3. Likewise, Respondent was eligible for food assistance benefits from the State of Michigan only if she was residing in Michigan. BEM 220, p. 1.

The Benefit Summary Inquiry presented by the Department showed that during the fraud period, Respondent received $ [REDACTED] in total FAP benefits. (Exhibit A, p. 46). All of the benefits issued during the period were received while the Respondent was living in Florida and receiving Florida SNAP benefits.

After a review of the evidence, the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect the OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED] from Respondent for overissued FAP benefits from June 2017 through August 2017.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $ [REDACTED]

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the FAP for 12 months.
