STATE OF MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING AND REGULATORY AFFAIRS MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING SYSTEM

SHELLY EDGERTON

Date Mailed: April 16, 2018 MAHS Docket No.: 17-015337

Agency No.: Petitioner: OIG

Respondent:

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Amanda M. T. Marler

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on April 12, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent was self-represented.

ISSUES

- 1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for the FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

 The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on October 24, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to truthfully and accurately answer all questions on the Application and subsequent Redetermination.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is June 2014 through March 2016 (fraud period).
- 7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued $ in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to $ in such benefits during this time period.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $______
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

 Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - > the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - > the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2017), pp. 5, 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (October 2016), pp. 7-8; BAM 720, p.1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP because she misrepresented the circumstances of household member failing to disclose that he had two or more drug-related felony convictions each occurring after August 22, 1996. Clients must completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews. BAM 105 (April 2014), p. 6. People convicted of certain crimes and probation or parole violators are not eligible for assistance. BEM 203 (July 2014), p. 1. Effective October 1, 2011, an individual convicted of a felony for the use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances will be permanently disqualified from receipt of FAP if (i) the terms of probation or parole are violated, and the qualifying conviction occurred after August 22, 1996, or (ii) the individual was convicted two or more times and both offenses occurred after August 22, 1996. BEM 203, p. 2. The offense must be classified as a felony by the law of the State and have as an element the possession, use or distribution (which is defined as actual, constructive, or attempted delivery) of a controlled substance. 21 USC 862a(a); 21 USC 802(8) and (11). The disqualification does not apply if the conviction is for conduct occurring on or before August 22, 1996. 21 USC 862a(d)(2).

The Department presented documentation including two Registers of Actions from the Third Circuit Court and Macomb County Circuit Court detailing household member's criminal history. (Exhibit A, pp. 12-16). According to the records provided, Respondent had two drug-related felony convictions after August 22, 1996. His first conviction was on November 25, 2013, for Controlled Substance-possession of a narcotic or cocaine less than 25 grams. In the second case, the Respondent was convicted of Controlled Substance-possession of narcotic or cocaine less than 25 grams on May 6, 2014. The cited statutory grounds for each set of convictions in the documents presented establish that Respondent had two felony drug convictions. Each conviction has possession, use, or distribution of a controlled substance as an element.

In support of its contention that Respondent committed an IPV, the Department presented an Application signed and submitted by the Respondent on September 10, 2014, on which Respondent indicated that household member did not have any felony drug convictions. (Exhibit A, p. 24). The Department also submitted for hearing a March 26, 2015, Redetermination completed by Respondent on which she indicated that household member had no felony drug convictions after August 22, 1996. The Application and Redetermination clearly instructed Respondent to provide true and complete information, as well as the penalties for failing to do so.

Respondent explained that she did not understand how a conviction was defined. She believed that because household member did not go to jail, he did not have any felony convictions. In reviewing the court records, household member has so far escaped a jail or prison sentence because he did not appear for sentencing after his guilty plea in the 3rd Circuit Court. In the Macomb County case, Respondent received no jail or prison time because he entered into a Cobbs plea, or a plea of guilty with an understanding or agreement as to the nature of the sentence he would face. In the Macomb case, household member pled guilty to a felony knowing that he would only face two years of probation. In addition, the pleas in both cases were taken in the circuit court, not the district court, a signal to the severity of the criminal case and its felony nature.

After a review of all of the evidence, Respondent did not truthfully identify household member's drug-related felony convictions on the application for benefits despite him having already incurred two felony drug convictions by the time of application. Given the circumstances surrounding each conviction, Respondent should have been aware of his felony status. The Department's evidence establishes by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent was advised of her responsibility to accurately report each household members circumstances, and that Respondent intentionally withheld information that if properly disclosed, would have made household member ineligible for FAP benefits. Under these circumstances, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of the FAP.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for 10 years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV. This was Respondent's first IPV. Therefore, she is subject to a one-year disqualification under the FAP.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The amount of a FAP OI is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

In this case, the Department alleged that Respondent was issued FAP benefits in the amount of from June 2014 through March 2016; and that due to household member's drug-related felony convictions, she was eligible for a reduced FAP benefit rate during this period. A review of the Respondent's Benefit Summary Inquiry presented by the Department supports benefits issued in the amount alleged. (Exhibit A, pp. 43-46). As discussed above, Respondent was eligible for a reduced FAP benefit because household member was subject to a permanent disqualification from the FAP. The Department presented an OI FAP worksheet showing the benefit rate received by Respondent, the benefit rate that Respondent should have received after removal of household member from the group, the OI amount, and the household size. (Exhibit A, p. 52). After a review of the worksheet, the Department properly calculated the OI for October 2014 through March 2016. RFT 260 (October 2014, October 2015), pp. 1-2, 7. However, for the period from June 2014 through September 2014, the Department listed Respondent as only being eligible for in FAP benefits, but Respondent was actually eligible for in benefits. RFT 260 (December 2013), p. 5. Therefore, the Department's OI is overcalculated by or for each month from June through September 2014. Therefore, the Department is entitled to recoup from Respondent, which is the difference between the amount of FAP benefits actually issued to her and the amount she was eligible to receive during the fraud period.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent received an OI of program benefits in the amount of $\frac{1}{2} \text{the FAP.}

The Department is ORDERED to reduce the OI to $ for the period June 2014 through March 2016, and initiate recoupment/collection procedures in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
