ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Amanda M. T. Marler

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on May 16, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by Nicholas Sultana, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

- 1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of the Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
- 2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
- 3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for the FAP?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on November 30, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.

- 2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits.
- 3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits issued by the Department.
- 4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility not to buy, sell, trade, exchange, or otherwise traffic FAP benefits.
- 5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
- 6. The Department's OIG indicates that the incident which led to the allegation of fraud took place on April 3, 2017.
- 7. At the time of the incident, Respondent was a recipient of FAP benefits.
- 8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of $
- 9. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
- 10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
 - ➢ the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (October 2017), pp. 5, 12-13; ASM 165 (August 2016).

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 700 (October 2016), pp. 7-8; BAM 720, p.1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of her FAP benefits because she attempted to purchase FAP benefits online using her Facebook account. Trafficking is the buying or selling of FAP benefits for cash or consideration other than eligible food. BAM 700, p. 1. Trafficking also includes (i) fraudulently using, transferring, altering, acquiring, or possessing coupons, authorization cards, or access devices, or (ii) redeeming or presenting for payment coupons known to be fraudulently obtained or transferred. BEM 203 (January 2013), p. 3. The federal regulations define trafficking to include "attempting to buy, sell, steal, or otherwise affect an exchange of [FAP] benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) . . . for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone." 7 CFR 271.2. In this case, the Department established that it adequately notified Respondent at the time of application that she could not buy, sell, exchange, or otherwise traffick her FAP benefits. (Exhibit A, p. 44.)

The Department alleges that Respondent attempted to purchase FAP benefits through a Facebook account with a username or profile name of "Thicka Thana Snika." The Department asserts that Respondent and the owner of the Facebook account are the same person. To support its allegation, the Department provided Facebook posting from the account showing a birthday celebration announcement scheduled for Friday, December 16th, for "Total and accompanying picture, a posting of a document with the name appearing on it, and a selfie from the Faceook account. To compare the images from the Faceook account, the Department also provided a Michigan State Police Secretary of State profile photo. In reviewing the photos from Facebook and the Secretary of State, the images appear to be of the same person. In addition, the birthday announcement matches Respondent's date of birth as listed on her application and on her Secretary of State profile. Given the considerable number of similiarities between Respondent's information and the Facebook profile, the Department has met its burden that they are in fact the same person.

The Department has also provided proof that through Respondent's Facebook profile, she attempted to sell FAP benefits on April 3, 2017, when she posted "I Got Yamps 200 for 100." Yamps is another name used for the Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card provided to all FAP recipients for the use FAP benefits. Respondent also made attempts to purchase additional FAP benefits on November 13, 2016; January 31, 2017; February 2, 2017; March 13, 2017; and March 14, 2017.

At the time Respondent's attempt to sell FAP, Respondent was an active FAP recipient and had been for several months prior to her attempt to purchase additional benefits. Finally, when the Regulation Agent spoke to Respondent about this case, Respondent admitted that she had trafficked FAP benefits. She also indicated a willingness to sign a repayment agreement. As of the date of the hearing in this case, the Department had not yet received a signed repayment agreement.

As discussed above, attempting to buy or sell FAP benefits is a form of trafficking. Respondent's attempt to buy and sell a Bridge Card is trafficking. Trafficking is an intentional program violation. BAM 720, p. 1. The Department has met its burden of proof in establishing an IPV.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for 10 years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV. This was Respondent's first IPV. Therefore, she is subject to a one-year disqualification under the FAP.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. The OI amount for a trafficking-related IPV is the value of the trafficked amount as determined by an administrative hearing decision, repayment and disqualification agreement, or court decision. BAM 720, p 8. When the amount of a FAP OI is not the result of trafficking, the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive is the amount of the OI. BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (January 2016), p. 6; BAM 705 (January 2016), p. 6.

As discussed above, the Department presented clear and convincing evidence, through its testimony and documentation to support its allegation that Respondent trafficked FAP benefits online. Therefore, the Department is entitled to recoup or collect of from Respondent, or the value of the trafficked benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

- 1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
- 2. Respondent received an OI of program benefits in the amount of $ from the FAP.

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $ amount in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
