ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Jeffrey Kemm

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on May 22, 2018, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Dana Daniels, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). The Respondent did not appear. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On November 13, 2006, Respondent pled guilty to two counts of a controlled substance felony.
2. On April 7, 2008, Respondent pled guilty to one count of a controlled substance felony.
3. On September 25, 2015, Respondent applied for FAP benefits.

4. The application Respondent completed on September 25, 2015, asked Respondent whether he had been convicted of a drug felony, and Respondent answered "No."
5. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit his understanding or ability to provide complete and truthful information.
6. The Department paid FAP benefits to Respondent based on the information Respondent provided in his September 25, 2015, application.
7. On October 24, 2016, Respondent applied for FAP benefits again.
8. The application Respondent completed on October 24, 2016, asked Respondent whether he had been convicted of a drug felony, and Respondent answered "No."
9. The Department paid FAP benefits to Respondent based on the information Respondent provided in his October 24, 2016, application.
10. The Department conducted an investigation of Respondent's FAP benefits and discovered that Respondent failed to report that he had two or more drug-related felony convictions.
11. The Department determined that Respondent was issued $2,804.00 in FAP benefits from September 2015 through January 2017, but he was not entitled to receive any FAP benefits because he had two or more felony drug-related convictions.
12. On January 4, 2018, the Department's OIG filed a hearing request to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at his last known address and it was returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.
14. The OIG requested Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits for 12 months for a first IPV.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

BAM 720 (October 1, 2017), p. 1.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
  - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500.00 or more, or
  - the total amount is less than $500.00, and
    - the group has a previous IPV, or
    - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
    - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
    - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720, p. 12-13

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, I find that the Department has met its burden. Respondent was required to completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews. BAM 105 (January 1, 2018), p. 9. The Department established that Respondent knew or should have known that he was required to answer completely and truthfully. The Department established that Respondent had two or more felony drug-related convictions, that Respondent knew or should have known that he had been convicted of these felonies, and that Respondent intentionally misrepresented information to the Department when he responded “No” when asked if he had been convicted of a drug-related felony. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit his understanding or ability to provide complete and truthful information.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 16. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FAP, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, there is no evidence that Respondent has ever been found to have committed an IPV related to FAP benefits. Thus, this is Respondent’s first IPV related to FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700 (January 1, 2018), p. 1. In this case, the Department established that Respondent received more FAP benefits than he was entitled to receive. The Department issued Respondent $2,804.00 in FAP benefits when Respondent was not entitled to receive any FAP benefits. Thus, Respondent received an overissuance of $2,804.00.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $2,804.00.

IT IS ORDERED THAT the Department may initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $2,804.00 in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall be disqualified from FAP benefits for a period of 12 months.
