HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on May 21, 2018, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG).

Respondent did not appear at the hearing; and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of FAP and MA benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) relating to FAP benefits?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on November 22, 2017, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV.
2. The OIG has requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits.
3. Respondent was a recipient of FAP and MA benefits issued by the Department.
4. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in residency to the Department within 10 days.
5. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.
6. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is December 5, 2016 through November 30, 2017 (FAP fraud period).
7. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
8. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
9. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is December 1, 2016 through July 31, 2017 (MA fraud period).
10. During the fraud period, Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in MA benefits by the State of Michigan, and the Department alleges that Respondent was entitled to [REDACTED] in such benefits during this time period.
11. The Department alleges that Respondent received an OI in MA benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
12. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105-.112k.

Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- Willful overpayments of $500.00 or more under the AHH program.
- FAP trafficking overissuances that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - The total amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs combined is $500 or more, or
 - the total amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

BAM 720 (January 2016), pp.12-13;

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1 (emphasis in original); see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In this case, the Department alleges that Respondent committed an IPV of his FAP benefits because he failed to notify the Department that he no longer resided in Michigan but continued to receive and use Michigan-issued FAP benefits while out of state. To be eligible for FAP benefits issued by the Department, an individual must be a Michigan resident. BEM 220 (January 2016), p. 1. For FAP purposes, a person is considered a resident while living in Michigan for purpose other than a vacation, even if he has no intent to remain in the State permanently or indefinitely. BEM 220, p. 1. A client who resides outside the State of Michigan for more than 30 days is not eligible for FAP benefits issued by the State of Michigan. BEM 212 (October 2015), p. 3.

Additionally, the Department provided Respondent's usage history which demonstrated that Respondent used his Michigan issued FAP benefits in Georgia on February 1, 2017 and then in California from February 15, 2017 through March 9, 2017. Beginning on March 13, 2017, Respondent used his Michigan FAP benefits exclusively in Georgia beginning March 13, 2017 through October 24, 2017, except for one purchase in Michigan on October 23, 2017. While this evidence may be sufficient to establish that Respondent may have been overissued benefits, to establish an IPV the Department must present clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of maintaining benefits.

The Department provided documentation showing that Respondent obtained a Georgia driver's license on September 29, 2015. The Department provided Respondent's father's death certificate in which Respondent was the informant on the death certification. Petitioner's father's date of death was October 27, 2015. Respondent listed a Georgia address as his mailing address.

Respondent submitted an online Michigan application on December 5, 2016 and September 28, 2017 in which he listed a Michigan address. The Department testified that it investigated the address used in the December 2016 application and learned that the home had been abandoned for years.

A review of Respondent's transaction history reveals that he used his FAP benefits in Michigan from January 10, 2017 through January 23, 2017. As such, it is possible that Respondent could have been a resident of Michigan at the time he submitted the December 5, 2016 application.

Further, there was no FAP usage from August 7, 2017 through October 16, 2017. A review of the benefit issuance summary reveals that Petitioner's FAP benefits ended on August 31, 2017 causing a need for him to reapply. The September 28, 2017 application was submitted online and thus could have been submitted from anywhere. The Department would not send the EBT card in which the FAP benefits are loaded to a Georgia address. Therefore, Respondent would have to appear in Michigan to retrieve the EBT card.

Respondent's September and October benefits were loaded onto his EBT card on October 5, 2017. Respondent made one Michigan purchase after his FAP benefits were available for use and then immediately began using his benefits in Michigan. Respondent failed to appear at the hearing and therefore failed to provide any evidence that he was a Michigan resident at the time he submitted the online application on September 28, 2017. Therefore, it is found that the Department has established that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of maintaining FAP benefits.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 15. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 16. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, the Department has satisfied its burden of showing that Respondent committed an IPV concerning FAP benefits. Accordingly, Respondent is subject to a 12-month disqualification under the FAP program.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than they are entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700, p. 1. At the hearing, the Department established that the State of Michigan issued a total of [REDACTED] in FAP benefits to Respondent during the fraud period. The Department alleges that Respondent was eligible for [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during FAP fraud period. Further, the Department established that the State of Michigan paid a total of [REDACTED] in MA benefits during the MA fraud period. The Department alleges that Respondent was eligible for [REDACTED] in FAP benefits during MA fraud period.

As previously stated, there is no evidence to support a finding that Respondent was a not a resident of Michigan at the time he submitted the December 2016. However, the evidence does support a finding that Respondent was not a resident of Michigan after he began using his FAP benefits out of state on February 1, 2017.

As discussed above, Respondent was no longer eligible for FAP benefits after he resided outside Michigan for more than 30 days. The Department is required to use the Standard of Promptness to determine the correct overissuance period. To determine the first month of the OI period the Department allows time for: the client reporting period; the full standard of promptness (SOP) for change processing; and the full negative action suspense period. BAM 715, pp. 4-5. Based on the above policy, the Department would apply the 10-day client reporting period, the 10-day processing period, and the 12-day negative action suspense period. BAM 715, pp. 4-5.

In this case, when the SOP is used, the OI period would begin April 1, 2017 given that Respondent began using his FAP benefits out of state on February 1, 2017. A review of the benefit issuance summary reveals that Respondent was issued [REDACTED] in FAP benefits from April 1, 2017 through November 30, 2017. A review of the Expenditure Summary for Respondent reveals that he was issued [REDACTED] in MA benefits from April 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017. Therefore, the Department has established it is entitled recoupment in the total amount of [REDACTED] for FAP and MA benefits it issued to or on behalf of Respondent during from April 1, 2017 through June 30, 2017.

DECISION AND ORDER

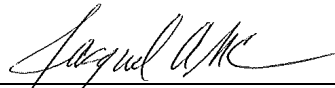

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent did receive an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].
3. Respondent did receive an OI of MA benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].

The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the total amount of [REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent is subject to a 12-month disqualification from FAP benefits.
