HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 5, 2018, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Martin O'Sullivan, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] did not appear. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e)(4).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On August 17, 2015, the Department issued a Redetermination to Respondent to obtain information from Respondent to review her eligibility for medical assistance.
2. On August 20, 2015, Respondent returned the Redetermination with the requested information. Respondent indicated that she and her three children were the members of her household. Respondent signed the form and thereby affirmed that the information she provided was true and complete.

3. In October 2015, all three of Respondent's children moved out of her household.
4. In February 2016, one of Respondent's children who had moved out returned back to her household.
5. On April 11, 2016, the Department issued a Redetermination to Respondent to obtain information from Respondent to review her eligibility for FAP benefits.
6. On April 30, 2016, Respondent returned the Redetermination with the requested information. Respondent indicated that she and her three children were the members of her household. Respondent did not indicate that any of her children had moved out of her household. Respondent signed the form and thereby affirmed that the information she provided was true and complete.
7. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit her understanding or ability to answer truthfully and completely.
8. In September 2016, another one of Respondent's children who had moved out returned back to her household.
9. The Department issued FAP benefits to Respondent based on a group size of four from November 1, 2015, through August 31, 2016. The Department issued Respondent $534.00 in FAP benefits in November 2015, $511.00 in FAP benefits from December 2015 through May 2016, and $649.00 in FAP benefits from June 2016 through August 2016.
10. The Department conducted an investigation of Respondent's case and discovered that Respondent did not have a group size of four during the time period the Department issued her FAP benefits based on a group size of four.
11. On January 29, 2018, the Department's OIG filed a hearing request to establish that Respondent received an overissuance of benefits and that Respondent committed an IPV. The Department requested the establishment of an overissuance of $1,978.00 for FAP benefits issued from November 2015 through August 2016.
12. The OIG requested Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits for 12 months for a first IPV.
13. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at her last known address and it was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Overissuance

An overissuance is the amount of benefits issued to the client group in excess of what it was eligible to receive. BAM 700 (October 1, 2015), p. 1. When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700, p. 1. In this case, Respondent received more benefits than she was entitled to receive. The Department issued FAP benefits to Respondent based on a group size of four when Respondent actually did not have that many group members. This caused Respondent to receive more FAP benefits than she was entitled to receive. The Department presented sufficient evidence to establish that Respondent was overissued $1,978.00 in FAP benefits.

Intentional Program Violation

The Department's policy in effect at the time of Respondent's alleged IPV defined an IPV as an overissuance in which the following three conditions exist: (1) The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and (2) The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and (3) The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill their reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (January 1, 2016) p. 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, I find that the Department has met its burden. Respondent was required to cooperate with the Department and provide complete and truthful answers on all forms.

BAM 105 (April 1, 2016), p. 9. The Department clearly and correctly instructed Respondent to answer truthfully and completely. Respondent failed to provide complete and truthful answers when she withheld information about her children moving out of her household on her April 30, 2016, response to the Department's Redetermination. Respondent's failure to disclose that her children had moved out of her household must be considered an intentional misrepresentation to maintain FAP benefits since Respondent knew or should have known that she was required to provide complete information about the members of her household and that reporting that her children had moved out would have caused the Department to reduce her FAP benefits. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit her understanding or ability to answer truthfully and completely.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. In general, clients are disqualified for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, there is no evidence that Respondent has ever been found to have committed an IPV related to FAP benefits. Thus, this is Respondent's first IPV related to FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification.

DECISION AND ORDER

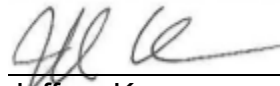

The Administrative Law Judge based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits in the amount of $1,978.00 that the Department is entitled to recoup.
2. The Department has established, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an IPV.
3. Respondent should be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits.

IT IS ORDERED THAT the Department may initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $1,978.00 in accordance with Department policy.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall be disqualified from FAP benefits for a period of one year.
