ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: John Markey

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 26, 2018, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Mark Mandreky, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e). During the hearing, 68 pages of documents were offered and admitted into evidence as Department's Exhibit A, page 1-68.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On ██████████, 2016, Respondent filed with the Department an application for FAP benefits with a group size of one. Exhibit A, pages 12-32.

2. By signing the application, Respondent certified that he received, reviewed, and understood the information contained within the DHHS publication titled "Important Things to Know" (also known as DHS-Pub-1010). Exhibit A, page 31.
3. DHS-PUB-1010 advised Respondent that using his FAP benefits for anything other than eligible food products for his own household's consumption was considered FAP trafficking and that such action violated the law and if proven, would result in criminal and/or civil penalties, including disqualification from the program. Exhibit A, page 50.
4. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit his understanding or ability to fulfill his responsibilities to the Department.
5. On February 17, 2017, the Department issued a lump sum of $3,120.00 to Respondent's EBT card. Exhibit A, page 39.
6. By shortly after noon on February 22, 2017, Respondent had spent down the entire balance that had been put on his EBT card just five days prior. Exhibit A, page 39.
7. Respondent's last EBT usage on February 22, 2017, was for $1,977.23 of eligible food products at Costco. Exhibit A, pages 38 and 41.
8. Respondent's purchase consisted of over $300 worth of bulk olive oil, over $1,600 worth of bulk energy drinks (Monster and Red Bull), and over $100 of unidentified items. Respondent's EBT balance of $1,977.23 was insufficient to cover the entire $1,991.42 purchase, so Respondent paid an additional $14.19 cash. Exhibit A, pages 41-49.
9. Because of the large amount spent and peculiar nature of the items purchased, the Department flagged Respondent's account and began an investigation.
10. On February 22, 2018, Mr. Mandreky visited Respondent at Respondent's apartment in order to gather more information regarding the February 22, 2017 Costco purchase. Mr. Mandreky asked Respondent what he did with the bulk items purchased. Respondent told Mr. Mandreky that his parents own a store in the Detroit area, where Respondent transferred the items to help their business. Respondent represented to Mr. Mandreky that the FAP benefits were issued to him and that he could do with them as he wishes.
11. Based on the suspicious nature of the Costco purchase and Respondent's own admissions, Mr. Mandreky concluded that sufficient evidence existed to allege an IPV against Respondent for engaging in fraudulent trafficking of FAP benefits.
12. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on February 28, 2018, to establish an OI of benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV by trafficking his FAP benefits.

13. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
14. The OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of one year.
15. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period is February 1, 2017, through February 28, 2017 (fraud period).
16. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp Program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

Intentional Program Violation

Suspected IPV means an OI exists for which all three of the following conditions exist:

- The client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination, and
- The client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities, and
- The client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill reporting responsibilities. BAM 720, p. 1.

An IPV is also suspected for a client who is alleged to have trafficked FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1. Trafficking includes not only the improper purchase, sale, or use of FAP benefits, but also the attempt to purchase, sell, or use FAP benefits for consideration other than eligible food. BAM 700, p. 2. Trafficking may be established by circumstantial evidence and can be inferred from the evidence with facts which are inconsistent with an honest person. See Foodland Distributors v Al-Naimi, 220 Mich App 453 (1996), p 381. In order to sustain an IPV for trafficking, the Department must prove by clear and convincing evidence that the client intentionally committed an act involving the unlawful transfer or attempted transfer of FAP benefits. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in a clear and firm belief that the proposition is true. See M Civ JI 8.01.

In addition, a person who knowingly uses, transfers, acquires, alters, purchases, possesses, presents for redemption or transports food stamps or coupons or access devices other than as authorized by the Food Stamp Act of 1977, is guilty of the crime of Food Assistance Program (FAP) trafficking. MCL 750.300(a).

In this case, the Department has established that Respondent was aware that misuse of his FAP benefits is a violation of state and federal laws for which he may be disqualified from the program, fined, and incarcerated, amongst other potential penalties. Further, the Department made Respondent aware that it was unlawful to use his FAP benefits to purchase anything other than eligible food products for his own household's consumption.

The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent engaged in FAP trafficking, which constitutes an IPV. Despite being made aware of the requirements and penalties for noncompliance, the evidence clearly shows Respondent intentionally violated the FAP program. The evidence in this case, including the highly irregular nature of Respondent's large purchase and Respondent's admission to Mr. Mandrekly, leads to only one reasonable conclusion: Respondent received a large infusion of money onto his EBT card and immediately engaged in a fraudulent scheme to use FAP benefits to buy eligible food items to stock at Respondent's parents' store. Respondent's parents are not part of Respondent's group. Furthermore, even if they were, they would not be entitled to sell the items purchased with the EBT card. Both providing non-group members with FAP benefits and selling items purchased with FAP benefits qualify as unlawful FAP trafficking.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15. Clients are disqualified for ten years for a FAP IPV involving concurrent receipt of benefits, and, for all other IPV cases involving FIP, FAP or SDA, for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as he/she lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, there is no evidence that Respondent has ever been found to have committed an IPV related to FAP benefits. Thus, this is Respondent's first IPV related to FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one year disqualification.

Overissuance

For FAP benefits, the measure of an overissuance is the amount of benefits trafficked (stolen, traded, bought or sold) or attempted to be trafficked. BAM 700, pp. 1-2, emphasis added. Respondent trafficked $1,977.23 in FAP benefits illegally in violation of BAM 700 and 7 CFR 273.16(c)(2). Thus, the Department is entitled to recoup $1,977.23 from Respondent.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent received an OI of FAP benefits in the amount of $1,977.23.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department is authorized to initiate recoupment and/or collection procedures for the amount of $1,977.23, less any amounts already recouped and/or collected.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from FAP benefits for a period of one year.
