Petitioner: [REDACTED]

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Jeffrey Kemm

HEARING DECISION

Following Petitioner's request for a hearing, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, 7 CFR 273.15, and Mich Admin Code, R 792.11002. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on February 27, 2019, from Lansing, Michigan. Petitioner, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] appeared and represented herself. Hearing Facilitator, Amber Gibson, appeared and represented the Department. Neither party had any additional witnesses.

One exhibit was admitted into evidence during the hearing. A 13-page packet of documents provided by the Department was admitted collectively as the Department's Exhibit A.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine Petitioner's Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Petitioner is a FAP benefit recipient.
2. Petitioner has a household size of one, Petitioner pays $151.00 per month for rent, Petitioner is responsible for her heat and utilities, and Petitioner receives $[REDACTED] per month from social security.
3. On December 8, 2018, the Department issued a Notice of Case Action to Petitioner to notify her that her FAP benefit was going to decrease to $66.00 per month effective January 1, 2019. The decrease was the result of an increase in Petitioner's social security from $ [REDACTED] to $ [REDACTED]

4. On January 15, 2019, Petitioner requested a hearing to dispute the decrease in her FAP benefits.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

The Department determines a client's monthly FAP benefit amount by determining the client's group size and countable household income and then looking that information up in its applicable Food Issuance Table. BEM 212 (January 1, 2017), BEM 213 (January 1, 2019), BEM 550 (January 1, 2017), BEM 554 (August 1, 2017), BEM 556 (April 1, 2018), and RFT 260 (October 1, 2018). To determine a client's countable income, the Department considers the expenses and deductions that a client is entitled to such as the standard deduction and the excess shelter expense. Here, Petitioner was entitled to a standard deduction of $158.00 for a household size of one, and Petitioner was entitled to an excess shelter expense of $324.00 (taking into account the maximum heat/utility standard of $543.00). Petitioner's income from social security of $ [REDACTED] less the expenses and deductions that she was entitled to results in a countable income of $417.00.

Once the Department determines a client's countable income, the Department looks it up in its Food Issuance Table to determine the maximum FAP benefit the client is entitled to receive. RFT 260 (October 1, 2018). A client with a household size of one and a countable income of $417.00 in January 2019 was entitled to a maximum FAP benefit of $66.00 per month. The Department properly determined Petitioner's FAP benefit amount when it determined she was eligible for $66.00 per month.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did act in accordance with its policies and the applicable law when determined Petitioner's FAP benefit amount.

IT IS ORDERED the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
