9. The maximum monthly allotment of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits a group of one could receive from January 1, 2018, through December 31, 2018, was $192. Department of Health and Human Services Reference Table Manual (RFT) 260 (October 1, 2017, and October 1, 2018), p 1.
10. Due to Department error, Petitioner's earned income was not applied towards her eligibility for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits from January 1, 2018, through December 31, 2018. Exhibit A, pp 39-62.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (January 1, 2018), p 1.

The Department received Petitioner's application for FAP benefits, and she acknowledged the duties and responsibilities of receiving those benefits. Petitioner reported to the Department that she was employed and receiving earned income as required, but due to Department error, this income was not applied to Petitioner's eligibility for ongoing FAP benefits. Petitioner received the maximum amount of FAP benefits available for a group of one from January 1, 2018, through December 31, 2018. If Petitioner's income had been properly applied towards her eligibility for FAP benefits, she would have been eligible for only $676 of those FAP benefits. Therefore, Petitioner received a $1,454 overissuance of FAP benefits due to Department error.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it determined that Petitioner received Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that she was not eligible for due to the Department error, and that the Department is required to recoup those overissued benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
