CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The regulations governing the hearing and appeal process for applicants and recipients of public assistance in Michigan are found in the Michigan Administrative Code, MAC R 400.901-400.951. An opportunity for a hearing shall be granted to an applicant who requests a hearing because his or her claim for assistance has been denied. MAC R 400.903(1). Clients have the right to contest a department decision affecting eligibility or benefit levels whenever it is believed that the decision is incorrect. The department will provide an administrative hearing to review the decision and determine the appropriateness of that decision. Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM 600).

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The State Emergency Relief (SER) program is established by the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b. The SER program is administered by the Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) pursuant to MCL 400.10 and Mich Admin Code, R 400.7001-.7049.

State Emergency Relief (SER) prevents serious harm to individuals and families. SER assists applicants with safe, decent, affordable housing and other essential needs when an emergency situation arises.

Requirements

Residence in the state of Michigan is not required. SER serves all persons physically present in Michigan. In addition, SER applicants must:

- Complete the application process.
- Meet financial and non-financial requirements.
- Have an emergency which threatens health or safety and can be resolved through issuance of SER.
- Take action within their ability to help themselves. For example, obtain potential resources and/or apply for assistance.
- Not have caused the emergency; see ERM 204, Client-Caused Emergencies.
- Cooperate in providing information about income, assets, living arrangements, and other persons living in the home.

Deny SER services for applicants who fail to meet any of the above requirements. ERM 101, page 1

In the instant case, Petitioner was not homeless. She did not have a summons or eviction notice. She chose to move from one apartment to another. Thus, she was not eligible to receive State Emergency Relief for assistance with relocation. In fact, Petitioner was able to move using her own resources. Petitioner has not established that she had an emergency.

Under the circumstances, the Department has established by the necessary competent, material and substantial evidence on the record that it was acting in compliance with Department policy when it determined that Petitioner was not eligible to receive State Emergency Relief because Petitioner did not have an emergency. In addition, even on the application that the Department initially approved, Petitioner did not pay the copayment within the time period, so the application would have been denied for that reason, even if Petitioner had established that she had an emergency for relocation purposes. The Department's action must be upheld under the circumstances.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, decides that the Department has established by a preponderance of evidence on the record that it was acting in compliance with Department policy when it denied Petitioner's State Emergency Relief application for assistance with relocation expenses.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.

It is so ORDERED.
