ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: John Markey

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7 and 42 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16 and 42 CFR 431.230(b). After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 19, 2018, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by [REDACTED], Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e). During the hearing, 41 pages of documents were offered and admitted as Department's Exhibit A, pages 1-41.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Medical Assistance (MA) and Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving MA and FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On May 10, 2016, the Department issued a Redetermination, Form 1010, to Respondent to obtain relevant ongoing eligibility information from Respondent. Exhibit A, page 10.
2. On [REDACTED] 2016, Respondent returned the completed Redetermination to the Department and certified that all information contained within the document was accurate. Exhibit A, page 15.
3. On the Redetermination, Respondent indicated that she lived at an address in [REDACTED] Michigan. Exhibit A, page 10.
4. Sometime in the fall of 2016, Respondent moved to Texas.
5. From August 23, 2016, through March 3, 2017, Respondent's EBT card was used exclusively at locations in Texas. Exhibit A, pages 16-19.
6. On [REDACTED], 2016, Respondent connected utilities in her name at an address in the State of Texas. Exhibit A, page 23.
7. The Department issued Respondent $1,071 in FAP benefits from December 1, 2016, through February 28, 2017. Exhibit A, page 39.
8. The Department issued Respondent $1,599.61 in MA benefits from December 1, 2016, through February 28, 2017. Exhibit A, pages 40-41.
9. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on March 20, 2018 to establish an OI of FAP and MA benefits received by Respondent when she was not a Michigan resident from December 1, 2016, through February 28, 2017. Exhibit A, page 1.
10. The OIG considered Respondent's failure to report her move to Texas an IPV and requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of 12 months. Exhibit A, page 1.
11. The Department is seeking to recoup MA and FAP benefits issued and/or paid from December 1, 2016, through February 28, 2017, totaling $2,670.61.
12. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit her understanding or ability to fulfill her reporting responsibilities.
13. This was Respondent's first alleged IPV.
14. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp Program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Medical Assistance (MA) program is established by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396-1396w-5; 42 USC 1315; the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the collective term for the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Pub. L. No. 111-148, as amended by the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, Pub. L. No. 111-152; and 42 CFR 430.10-.25. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers the MA program pursuant to 42 CFR 435, MCL 400.10 and MCL 400.105-.112k.

Overissuance

Only residents of Michigan are eligible to receive benefits from the Department. BEM 220 (January 1, 2016), page 1. When an ineligible client is issued benefits or an eligible client is issued more benefits than the client is entitled, the Department must attempt to recoup the OI. BAM 700 (January 1, 2016), page 1.

In this case, the Department showed by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent was a Texas resident as of October of 2016, at the latest. Thus, Respondent was no longer a Michigan resident and was ineligible to receive benefits. However, because of Respondent's failure to report her move to Texas, the Department paid MA benefits of $1,599.61 and issued FAP benefits of $1,071 from December 1, 2016, through February 28, 2017. As Respondent was ineligible to receive those benefits, they are considered an OI.

Intentional Program Violation

The Department's policy in effect at the time of Respondent's alleged IPV defined an IPV as an overissuance in which the following three conditions exist: (1) the client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination; (2) the client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities; and (3) the client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill his or her reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (January 1, 2016) page 1.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, page 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, the Department has not met its burden. Respondent was required to report changes in her circumstances to the Department within 10 days of the date of the change. BAM 105 (April 1, 2016), pages 11-12. Further, she did not suffer from any apparent physical or mental impairment. However, the Department failed to show by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent was clearly and correctly instructed regarding her obligation to report changes to the Department within 10 days. The Department's position is that Respondent's signature on the Redetermination shows that she was clearly informed of the requirement to report any changes. To the contrary, the Redetermination merely informed Respondent that if she filled out the form in an untruthful manner, she would be subject to penalties and required her to certify that her representations were truthful and complete. Upon reviewing the Redetermination in its entirety, it is clear that the Redetermination is silent regarding any ongoing reporting requirements. Thus, the Department has failed to meet its burden of proving all of the three elements required to establish an IPV.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, pages 15-16. In general, clients are disqualified for standards disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, page 16.

In this case, there was no IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification from receiving FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits in the amount of $1,071 that the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect.
3. The Department paid an overissuance of MA benefits in the amount of $1,599.61 that the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department may initiate recoupment and/or collection procedures for the total overissuance amount of $2,670.61 established in this matter, less any amounts already recouped and/or collected.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall not be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits as a result of this case.
