HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on August 26, 2019, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by Amber Johnson, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear for the hearing. The hearing was held in his absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e). During the hearing, a 64-page packet of documents was offered and admitted into evidence as Exhibit A, pp. 1-64.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) with respect to FAP?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On April 18, 2017, Respondent applied for FAP benefits from the Department. Exhibit A, pp. 11-30.

2. Respondent signed the application, thereby certifying that all information contained in the application was true to the best of his knowledge. Exhibit A, p. 30.
3. On August 1, 2017, the Department issued to Respondent a Semi-Annual Contact Report to gather relevant information regarding Respondent's ongoing eligibility for FAP benefits. Respondent was required to complete the form and return it to the Department by September 1, 2017. Exhibit A, pp. 36-37.
4. On August 7, 2017, Respondent returned to work at his job with [REDACTED]. From that day forward and for all times relevant to the instant matter, Respondent regularly worked full-time hours at [REDACTED]. Exhibit A, pp. 42-52.
5. On August 14, 2017, Respondent returned the completed Semi-Annual Contact Report to the Department. Respondent falsely represented on the form that his household income was less than $100 per month. Respondent signed the form and dated it August 14, 2017 before returning it to the Department. Exhibit A, pp. 36-37.
6. On September 12, 2017, the Department issued to Respondent a Notice of Case Action informing Respondent that he was approved for monthly FAP benefits in the amount of $192. The Notice of Case Action stated that his monthly benefits were based on a monthly income of $0. Further, Respondent was informed that he had a responsibility to report any changes to his income within 10 days of the change. Respondent was informed that failure to report changes may make him liable for penalties for fraud. Exhibit A, pp. 38-41.
7. Respondent never reported his income or employment with [REDACTED] to the Department.
8. Respondent was approved for and received FAP benefits based on the information Respondent provided. From December 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018, Respondent received FAP benefits that were calculated without consideration of his concealed income from PRD. Exhibit A, pp. 1-8; 53.
9. On May 9, 2019, the Department's OIG filed a hearing request to establish an IPV with respect to FAP. The Department's OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for one year for a first alleged IPV. The Department considers the alleged fraud period to be December 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018. During the fraud period, the Department issued to Respondent $576 in FAP benefits. However, the Department believes that Respondent was only entitled to $32 in FAP benefits during that timeframe. The Department is seeking to establish a $544 overissuance of FAP benefits received during the fraud period. Exhibit A, pp. 1-8, 56-61.
10. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

11. Respondent did not have any apparent mental or physical impairment that would limit his understanding or ability to fulfill his reporting requirements.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp Program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's position is that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to FAP by misrepresenting his income leading to the overissuance of FAP benefits. The Department contends that the material misrepresentation led the Department to overissue to Respondent $544 in FAP benefits for the period from December 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018.

Overissuance

An overissuance is the amount of benefits issued to the client group in excess of what it was eligible to receive. BAM 700 (January 2016), p. 1; 7 CFR 273.18. When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700, p. 1; 7 CFR 273.18.

In this case, Respondent received more benefits than he was entitled to receive. The Department determined Respondent's eligibility without budgeting Respondent's concealed income from his employment with [REDACTED], which caused Respondent's household income to be understated. Properly factoring into the equation the household's unreported income reduced the amount of FAP benefits that Respondent was eligible to receive. The Department established that Respondent was only entitled to $32 of FAP benefits from December 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018. The Department issued to Respondent a total of $576 in FAP benefits during that period. Thus, the Department has shown that it overissued $544 of FAP benefits from December 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018.

Intentional Program Violation

The Department's policy in effect at the time of Respondent's alleged IPV defined an IPV as an overissuance in which the following three conditions exist: (1) the client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination; (2) the client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities; and (3) the client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill his or her reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (January 2016), p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(c).

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, page 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, the Department has met its burden. Respondent was required to completely and truthfully answer all questions in forms and in interviews. BAM 105 (April 2016), p. 9. On August 14, 2017, Respondent submitted a Semi-Annual Contact Report to the Department. On the submission, Respondent lied about his household income by certifying that he had less than $100 per month in income. Respondent at that point had been working for about one week in a full-time job where his earnings had already substantially exceeded the amount stated on the submission. Thus, Respondent affirmatively misrepresented his household's income when filing the Semi-Annual Contact Report with the Department.

Respondent's dishonest and misleading statements to the Department regarding his income must be considered an intentional misrepresentation to maintain his FAP benefits since Respondent knew or should have known that he was required to report the income to the Department and that reporting the income to the Department would have caused the Department to recalculate and reduce his FAP benefits. Respondent did not have any apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit his understanding or ability to fulfill his reporting requirement. The Department has proven by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an intentional program violation.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, pp. 15-16; 7 CFR 273.16(b). In general, clients are disqualified for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16.

In this case, there is no indication in the record that Respondent was previously found to have committed an IPV related to FAP benefits. Thus, this is Respondent's first IPV related to FAP benefits. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification from receiving FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to his FAP benefits.
2. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits in the amount of $544 that the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect.
3. Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification from receiving FAP benefits.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department shall initiate recoupment/collection procedures for the amount of $544 in accordance with Department policy, less any amounts already recouped or collected.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of one year.
