ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: John Markey

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on October 7, 2019, from Detroit, Michigan. The Department was represented by Christine Smolinski, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5). During the hearing, a 181-page packet of documents was offered and admitted into evidence as Exhibit A, pp. 1-181.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect?
2. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV) with respect to FAP?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On [REDACTED], 2008, Respondent was convicted of a controlled substance felony in Saginaw County, Michigan. Exhibit A, p. 162.
2. On [REDACTED], 2014, Respondent was convicted of a controlled substance felony in Saginaw County, Michigan. Exhibit A, p. 163.
3. On April 21, 2014 and July 7, 2014, Respondent submitted to the Department applications for FAP benefits. The applications asked Respondent if he had been convicted of a drug-related felony, to which Respondent dishonestly answered "No." Exhibit A, pp. 13-56.
4. Respondent signed the applications and thereby certified that he understood the questions in the applications and that he provided true and complete information. Respondent further certified that he understood the consequences of providing false information on the applications. Exhibit A, pp. 27; 54.
5. Respondent submitted multiple filings to the Department over the course of the next two years. Each time he was asked, Respondent dishonestly misrepresented his criminal history while certifying the truth of the matter. Exhibit A, pp. 57-161.
6. Respondent's FAP benefits were approved. Exhibit A, pp. 175-178.
7. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request [REDACTED], 2019 to establish an overissuance of FAP benefits received by Respondent as a result of Respondent having allegedly committed an IPV by misrepresenting his criminal history in his application. Exhibit A, pp. 1-9.
8. The OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of one year for a first IPV. Exhibit A, pp. 1-9.
9. The Department's OIG indicates that the time period it is considering the fraud period with respect to FAP is July 7, 2014 through March 31, 2016 (fraud period), during which the Department issued Respondent $3,159 in FAP benefits. The Department is seeking an order requiring Respondent to repay those benefits to the Department. Exhibit A, pp. 1-9; 175-178.
10. A Notice of Hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp Program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a, and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015.

The Department's position in this matter is that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to FAP and should be accordingly required to pay back the alleged ill-gotten gains and be disqualified from receipt of FAP benefits for a period of one year.

Overissuance

When an ineligible client is issued benefits or an eligible client is issued more benefits than the client is entitled, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700 (May 2014), p. 1; 7 CFR 273.18.

In this case, Respondent received more FAP benefits than he was entitled to receive. An individual who has been convicted of two or more felony drug offenses which occurred after August 22, 1996, is permanently disqualified from receiving FAP benefits. BEM 203 (January 2015), p. 2; 7 CFR 273.1(b)(7)(vii). Respondent had at least two felony drug convictions which occurred after August 22, 1996, so he was permanently disqualified from receiving FAP benefits as of the date of his second conviction, January 13, 2014. Thus, all benefits issued to Respondent after January 13, 2014 were overissued because Respondent was not entitled to any benefits. The Department issued $3,159 in FAP benefits to Respondent from July 7, 2014 through March 31, 2016. Thus, Respondent was overissued $3,159 in FAP benefits.

Intentional Program Violation

The Department's policy in effect at the time of Respondent's alleged IPV defined an IPV as an overissuance in which the following three conditions exist: (1) the client intentionally failed to report information or intentionally gave incomplete or inaccurate information needed to make a correct benefit determination; (2) the client was clearly and correctly instructed regarding his or her reporting responsibilities; and (3) the client has no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits his or her understanding or ability to fulfill his or her reporting responsibilities. BAM 720 (October 2014) p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(c).

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, the Department has met its burden of proof. Respondent was required to completely and truthfully answer all questions in forms and in interviews. BAM 105 (July 2015), p. 8. The Department clearly and correctly instructed Respondent of the requirement to provide truthful answers and the penalties for failing to do so.

Despite being clearly instructed to answer questions honestly and certifying that he had done so, Respondent failed to completely and truthfully answer all questions on at least eight submissions to the Department. On each submission, the Department asked Respondent whether he had been convicted of drug-related felonies, and Respondent dishonestly answered "No."

Respondent intentionally misrepresented his criminal past to the Department to obtain benefits when he knew or should have known that the Department would consider the information in determining his eligibility for FAP benefits. The Department has proven by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an intentional program violation with respect to FAP.

Disqualification

A client who is found to have committed an IPV with respect to FAP by a court or hearing decision is disqualified from receiving FAP benefits. BAM 720, pp. 15-16; 7 CFR 273.16. In general, clients are disqualified for standard disqualification periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. BAM 720, p. 16. A ten-year disqualification is imposed if a client makes a fraudulent statement or representation regarding residence in order to receive concurrent benefits from more than one state. BAM 720, p. 16; BEM 203, p. 1; 7 CFR 273.16(b)(5).

There is no evidence on the record that Respondent has previously been found to have committed an IPV with respect to FAP. Thus, Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification from receiving FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. Respondent received an overissuance of FAP benefits in the amount of $3,159 that the Department is entitled to recoup and/or collect.
2. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV with respect to his FAP benefits.
3. Respondent is subject to a one-year disqualification from receiving FAP benefits.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department may initiate recoupment and/or collection procedures for the total FAP overissuance amount of $3,159 established in this matter less any amounts already recouped or collected.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent shall be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of one year.
