MOAHR Docket No.: 20-003485
Agency No.: [REDACTED]
Petitioner: [REDACTED]

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Jeffrey Kemm

HEARING DECISION

Following Petitioner's hearing request, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, 7 CFR 273.15, and Mich Admin Code, R 792.11002. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on June 25, 2020. Petitioner, [REDACTED], appeared with her boyfriend, [REDACTED]. Respondent, Department of Health and Human Services (Department), had Alisha Young, Recoupment Specialist, appear as its representative. Neither party had any additional witnesses.

One exhibit was admitted into evidence during the hearing. A 71-page packet of documents provided by the Department was admitted collectively as the Department's Exhibit A.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $509.00 for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that were overissued to her in January 2020?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Petitioner is a FAP recipient.
2. In June 2019, Petitioner obtained new employment at [REDACTED].
3. Petitioner did not report her employment to the Department.
4. In November 2019, Petitioner's boyfriend and housemate returned to employment at [REDACTED].

5. Petitioner did not report her boyfriend's employment to the Department.
6. The Department continued to issue FAP benefits to Petitioner without taking into consideration her change in household income from her new employment and her boyfriend's new employment.
7. The Department issued Petitioner FAP benefits of $509.00 in January 2020 based on a budgeted household income of $[REDACTED].
8. Petitioner's household income was $[REDACTED] in January 2020.
9. The Department discovered that Petitioner had an unreported change in household income, and the Department determined that it overissued FAP benefits to Petitioner as a result.
10. The Department recalculated the amount of FAP benefits that Petitioner was eligible for by taking into consideration both her income from her new employment and her boyfriend's income from his new employment.
11. The Department determined that Petitioner was eligible for $[REDACTED] in January 2020.
12. The Department subtracted the total amount of FAP benefits that Petitioner was eligible for from the total amount of FAP benefits she received in January 2020 and determined that Petitioner was overissued $509.00.
13. On March 16, 2020, the Department mailed a notice of overissuance to Petitioner to notify her that she received an overissuance of $509.00 in FAP benefits in January 2020.
14. On March 27, 2020, Petitioner requested a hearing to dispute the notice of overissuance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

When a client receives more benefits than she was entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700 (October 1, 2018), p. 1. The overissuance amount is the amount of benefits in excess of the amount the client was eligible to receive. Id. at 2. In this case, the Department issued Petitioner more FAP benefits than what she was eligible to receive because the Department issued Petitioner FAP benefits without taking into consideration all of her household income. The Department presented sufficient evidence to establish that the total amount overissued was $509.00, and Petitioner did not present any evidence to rebut the Department's evidence. Therefore, I must find that the Department properly determined that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $509.00.

Overissuances for FAP that result from a client error must be pursued by the Department when the amount is greater than or equal to $250. Id. at 10. Here, Petitioner received an overissuance due to a client error because her failure to report a change in household income caused the overissuance. The Department acted in accordance with its policies when it pursued the overissuance because the amount involved was greater than or equal to $250.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did act in accordance with its policies and the applicable law when it determined that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $509.00 for FAP benefits that were overissued to her in January 2020.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
