HEARING DECISION

On April 10, 2020, Petitioner, Jeffry Wanstead, requested a hearing to dispute a notice of overissuance. Following Petitioner's hearing request, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, 7 CFR 273.15, and Mich Admin Code, R 792.11002. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on July 9, 2020. Petitioner appeared and represented himself. Respondent, Department of Health and Human Services (Department), had Dawn McKay, Recoupment Specialist, appear as its representative. Neither party had any additional witnesses.

One exhibit was admitted into evidence during the hearing. A 25-page packet of documents provided by the Department was admitted collectively as the Department's Exhibit A.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $776.00 for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that were overissued to him from December 2019 through March 2020?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Petitioner applied for and received FAP benefits from the Department.
2. While Petitioner was receiving FAP benefits from the Department, Petitioner moved to the state of Alabama.
3. In October 2019, Petitioner reported his move to the Department as required.
4. The Department did not process Petitioner's reported change and continued to issue FAP benefits to him.

5. The Department subsequently discovered that it erroneously issued FAP benefits to Petitioner after he moved out of state.
6. The Department determined that it should not have issued any FAP benefits to Petitioner after November 30, 2019, and the Department determined that it issued Petitioner $776.00 in FAP benefits after November 30, 2019.
7. On March 25, 2020, the Department mailed a notice of overissuance to Petitioner to notify him that he received an overissuance of $776.00 in FAP benefits from December 2019 through March 2020.
8. On April 10, 2020, Petitioner requested a hearing to dispute the notice of overissuance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

When a client receives more benefits than he was entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700 (October 1, 2018), p. 1. The overissuance amount is the amount of benefits in excess of the amount the client was eligible to receive. Id. at 2. In this case, the Department issued Petitioner more FAP benefits than what he was eligible to receive because the Department issued Petitioner FAP benefits after he moved out of state. The Department presented sufficient evidence to establish that the total amount overissued was $776.00, and Petitioner did not present any evidence to rebut the Department's evidence. Therefore, I must find that the Department properly determined that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $776.00.

Petitioner argued that he should not be responsible for paying the overissuance because it was not his fault that he was overissued FAP benefits since he reported his move to the Department. Further, Petitioner argued that he should not be responsible for paying the overissuance because he was unable to get assistance in Alabama because the Department failed to close his case in a timely manner. Overissuances for FAP that result from the Department's error must be pursued by the Department when the amount is greater than or equal to $250.00. BAM 705 (October 1, 2018), p. 1. Here, Petitioner received an overissuance due to the Department's error. However, the Department acted in accordance with its policies when it pursued the overissuance because the amount involved was greater than or equal to $250.00.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department did act in accordance with its policies and the applicable law when it determined that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $776.00 for FAP benefits that were overissued to him from December 2019 through March 2020.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
