Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178. After due notice, telephone hearing was held on January 21, 2021. The Department was represented by Shannon Davis, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On a Redetermination (DHS-1010) form received by the Department on September 19, 2016, Respondent acknowledged her duties and responsibilities including the duty to report changes of employment status and increases of earned income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Exhibit A, pp 9-14.
2. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that her September 19, 2016, Redetermination form was examined by or read to her, and, to the best of her knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Exhibit A, p 14.

3. Respondent reported on her September 19, 2016, Redetermination form that she was not receiving any income. Exhibit A, p 12.
4. On an application for assistance dated [REDACTED], 2017, Respondent acknowledged her duties and responsibilities including the duty to report changes of employment status and increases of earned income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Exhibit A, pp 15-57.
5. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that her [REDACTED], 2017, application form was examined by or read to her, and, to the best of her knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Exhibit A, p 33.
6. Respondent reported on her [REDACTED], 2017, application for assistance that no in her household of three people was employed. Exhibit A, pp 25-26.
7. On January 25, 2017, the Department notified Respondent that she was eligible for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits as a household of two not receiving any earned income from employment, and that Respondent was disqualified from receiving FAP benefits because she failed to participate in employment. Exhibit A, pp 52-55.
8. Respondent received Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits totaling $3,066 from December 1, 2016, through May 31, 2017. Exhibit A, p 87.
9. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on August 6, 2020, to establish that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). Exhibit A, p 3.
10. On August 6, 2020, the Department sent Respondent a Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing (DHS-826). Exhibit A, pp 607.
11. This was Respondent's second established IPV.
12. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.
13. The Department's representative testified that Respondent has filed for bankruptcy.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is funded under the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 through 7 USC 2036a. It is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 of the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1 et seq, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through 400.3011.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

Department of Health and Human Services Bridges
Administrative Manual (BAM) 720 (October 1, 2017), pp 12-13.

Overissuance

When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (October 1, 2018), p 1.

On August 6, 2020, the Department filed a hearing request to establish that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation. Respondent has filed for bankruptcy. The Department will suspend the collection of a debt when the client files for bankruptcy as directed by BEM 725. The Department's representative testified that the Department is asking for disqualification from FAP only while the collection of the debt is suspended.

Intentional Program Violation

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6).

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

Respondent acknowledged the duties and responsibilities of receiving FAP benefits on a Redetermination (DHS-1010) form received by the Department on September 19, 2016, and an application for assistance dated [REDACTED], 2017. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement.

Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that her [REDACTED], 2017, application form was examined by or read to her, and, to the best of her knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Respondent reported on her [REDACTED], 2017, application for assistance that no one in her household of three was employed.

Respondent failed to report starting employment and receiving earned income from September 30, 2016, through May 26, 2017.

On January 25, 2017, the Department notified Respondent that she was eligible for FAP benefits as a household of two not receiving any earned income from employment. The Department also notified Respondent that she had been disqualified from receiving FAP benefits because she failed to participate in employment. Respondent continued to receive FAP benefits as a household of two, consisting of her two children. Respondent failed to report that she was working full time, but instead accepted disqualification from FAP for failing to participate in employment.

As a result of Respondent's failure to report her employment and income from that employment, she received an overissuance of FAP benefits. The collection of that debt has been suspended due to Respondent filing for bankruptcy.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has presented clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally failed to report her employment and income from that employment for the purposes of maintaining her eligibility for FAP benefits that she would not have been eligible for otherwise.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as the disqualified person lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Refusal to repay will not cause denial of current or future MA if the client is otherwise eligible. BAM 710 (January 1, 2018), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

The record evidence indicates that this is Respondent's second established IPV violation.

The Department has established an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP) for a period of 24 months.
