HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 29, 2018, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Patrick Waldron, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent, [REDACTED] did not appear. The hearing was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e)(4).

ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?
3. Does Respondent owe the Department a debt for the value of FAP benefits trafficked?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. Respondent was a FAP benefit recipient.
2. On December 6, 2016, an individual with a social media profile with Respondent's name posted on social media, "who want this 140 in stamps inbox me."
3. Respondent was incarcerated from [REDACTED], 2017, to [REDACTED], 2017.

4. Respondent's FAP benefits were used to complete EBT transactions while Respondent was incarcerated.
5. The Department investigated Respondent's case. The Department attempted to contact Respondent to discuss the December 6, 2016, social media post and the usage of her FAP benefits while she was incarcerated. Respondent did not respond to the Department's attempt.
6. On September 13, 2018, the Department's OIG filed a hearing request to establish that Respondent committed an IPV and that Respondent owes the Department a debt for the value of the FAP benefits trafficked.
7. The Department requested Respondent be disqualified from receiving program benefits for 12 months for a first IPV, and the Department requested the establishment of a debt of $631.80 for the value of benefits trafficked.
8. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at her last known address and it was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) is a federal food assistance program designed to promote general welfare and to safeguard well-being by increasing food purchasing power. 7 USC 2011 and 7 CFR 271.1. The Department administers its Food Assistance Program (FAP) pursuant to MCL 400.10; the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b; and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to .3015. Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

Intentional Program Violation

An intentional program violation (IPV) "shall consist of having intentionally: (1) Made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts; or (2) Committed any act that constitutes a violation of SNAP, SNAP regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing or trafficking of SNAP benefits or EBT cards." 7 CFR 273.16(c).

Trafficking means:

- (1) The buying, selling, stealing, or otherwise effecting an exchange of SNAP benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, card numbers and personal identification numbers (PINs), or by manual voucher and signature, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone;
- (2) The exchange of firearms, ammunition, explosives, or controlled substances, as defined in section 802 of title 21, United States Code, for SNAP benefits;

(3) Purchasing a product with SNAP benefits that has a container requiring a return deposit with the intent of obtaining cash by discarding the product and returning the container for the deposit amount, intentionally discarding the product, and intentionally returning the container for the deposit amount;

(4) Purchasing a product with SNAP benefits with the intent of obtaining cash or consideration other than eligible food by reselling the product, and subsequently intentionally reselling the product purchased with SNAP benefits in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food; or

(5) Intentionally purchasing products originally purchased with SNAP benefits in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food.

(6) Attempting to buy, sell, steal, or otherwise affect an exchange of SNAP benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, card numbers and personal identification numbers (PINs), or by manual voucher and signatures, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone.

7 CFR 271.2.

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has trafficked FAP benefits. 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6). Clear and convincing evidence is evidence which is so clear, direct, weighty, and convincing that it enables a firm belief as to the truth of the allegations sought to be established. In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995) (citing In re Jobes, 108 NJ 394 (1987)).

In this case, I find that the Department has not met its burden. The Department alleged that Respondent trafficked her benefits in two instances, but the Department did not present clear and convincing evidence to establish that Respondent trafficked her benefits in either instance.

First, the Department alleged that Respondent committed an IPV because a social media profile for a "██████████" made a post in an attempt to sell FAP. The Department did not present sufficient evidence to establish that the Facebook profile for ██████████ actually belonged to Respondent. The Department's only evidence that the profile belonged to Respondent was that the profile name matched Respondent's. Although the names matched, it is entirely possible that another individual has a social media profile with the same name as Respondent. The Department did not offer any other evidence to support its position that the profile belonged to Respondent. Since there is insufficient evidence to establish that the profile belonged to Respondent, Respondent cannot be held responsible for the FAP trafficking committed on the profile. Second, the Department alleged that Respondent committed an IPV because her FAP benefits were used to complete EBT transactions while she was incarcerated. The Department did not present sufficient evidence to establish either that Respondent received anything in exchange for her FAP benefits while she was incarcerated or that she knew her FAP benefits were being used while she was incarcerated. The Department's only evidence was that Respondent was incarcerated during the dates her FAP benefits were used to complete EBT transactions. The Department did not offer any other evidence to establish that Respondent bargained to receive anything other than eligible food items for her FAP benefits or that Respondent even knew her FAP benefits were being used while she was incarcerated. Thus, there is insufficient evidence to establish that Respondent committed an IPV.

Disqualification

In general, individuals found to have committed an intentional Program violation through an administrative disqualification hearing shall be ineligible to participate in the Program: (i) for a period of 12 months for the first violation, (ii) for a period of 24 months for the second violation, and (iii) permanently for a third violation. 7 CFR 273.16(b). Only the individual who committed the violation shall be disqualified – not the entire household. 7 CFR 273.16(b)(11).

In this case, the Department did not establish that Respondent committed an intentional program violation, so Respondent is not disqualified from FAP.

Overissuance

A recipient claim is an amount owed because of benefits that were overpaid or benefits that were trafficked. 7 CFR 273.18(a)(1). A recipient claim based on trafficking is the value of the trafficked benefits. 7 CFR 273.18(c)(2).

In this case, the Department did not establish that Respondent trafficked FAP benefits, so Respondent does not owe the Department anything.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has not established, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent should not be disqualified from FAP.

3. Respondent does not owe the Department a debt for trafficking FAP benefits.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
