FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

- 1. Petitioner re-applied for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits on 2019, after the Department closed her benefits for failing to verify household income. Exhibit A, p 1.

- 3. Department records indicate that a telephone interview was attempted on March 29, 2019, but Petitioner did not answer her telephone and a message could not be left. Exhibit A, p 1.
- 4. Department records indicate that a telephone interview was attempted on April 1, 2019, but Petitioner did not answer her telephone. Exhibit A, p 1.

- 5. On April 10, 2019, the Department sent Petitioner an Appointment Notice (DHS-170) instructing her to participate in a required telephone eligibility interview at 11:00 a.m. on April 17, 2019, which was sent to her mailing address of record. Exhibit A, p 4.
- 6. Department records indicate that a telephone interview was attempted on April 17, 2019, and Petitioner answered her telephone, but refused to complete the interview. Exhibit A, p 1.
- 7. On April 15, 2019, the Department sent Petitioner an Appointment Notice (DHS-170) instructing her to participate in a required telephone eligibility interview at 8:30 a.m. on April 22, 2019, which was sent to her mailing address of record. Exhibit A, p 5.
- 8. Department records indicate that a telephone interview was attempted on April 25, 2019, and Petitioner answered her telephone, but refused to complete the interview. Exhibit A, p 1.
- 9. On April 25, 2019, the Department notified Petitioner that her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application had been denied and that she was not eligible for benefits as of March 26, 2019. Exhibit A, pp 2-3.
- 10. On June 28, 2019, the Department received Petitioner's request for a hearing protesting the denial of her Food Assistance Program (FAP) application.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Department will automatically generate an interview notice where required by policy. The Department will deny a FAP application if the client misses the eligibility interview and does not reschedule it within 30 days of the application date. Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 115 (April 1, 2019), pp 1-37.

Petitioner re-applied for FAP benefits on 2019, after her benefits had closed for failing to verify income. The Department sent Petitioner written notice that she would be interviewed by telephone, which is a requirement to become eligible for FAP benefits as directed by BEM 115. After making several unsuccessful attempts to interview Petitioner, the Department was able to contact her by telephone.

However, Petitioner ended the interviews and failed to complete the interviews. Therefore, on April 25, 2019, the Department notified Petitioner that she is not eligible for FAP benefits for failure to complete the required eligibility interview.

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Petitioner's Assistance Program (FAP) application.

Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
