ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE: Kevin Scully

HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130, and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on August 29, 2023, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Valerie Mathis, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent represented himself.

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On an application for assistance dated January [REDACTED] 2022, the Respondent acknowledged his duties and responsibilities including the duty to use Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits in a manner consistent with the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Exhibit A, pp 11-21.

2. On February █ 2022, the Department notified Respondent that he was eligible for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits as a household of two. Exhibit A, pp 11-21.
3. Respondent was incarcerated in the █ █ █ on June █ 2022, and he remained there until he was transferred to a state prison on September █ 2022. Exhibit A, pp 57-60.
4. Respondent received Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits totaling $ █ from August 1, 2022, through September 30, 2022. Exhibit A, p 75.
5. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on April 4, 2023, to establish that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). Exhibit A, p 3.
6. On April █ 2023, the Department sent Respondent an Intentional Program Violation Repayment Agreement (DHS-4350) with notice of a $ █ overpayment. Exhibit A, pp 78-79.
7. On April █ 2023, the Department sent Respondent a Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing (DHS-826). Exhibit A, pp 7-8.
8. This was Respondent's first established IPV.
9. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the US Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is funded under the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 through 7 USC 2036a. It is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 of the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1 et seq, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through 400.3011.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.

- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual BAM 720 (October 1, 2017), pp 12-13.

When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (October 1, 2018), p 1.

Federal regulations provide the following definition of intentional program violations:

Definition of intentional Program violation. Intentional Program violations shall consist of having intentionally:

(1) Made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts; or

(2) Committed any act that constitutes a violation of SNAP, SNAP regulations, or any State statute for the purpose of using, presenting, transferring, acquiring, receiving, possessing, or trafficking of SNAP benefits or EBT cards. 7 CFR 273.16(c).

Respondent acknowledged the duties and responsibilities of receiving FAP benefits including the duty to report changes of circumstances affecting his eligibility for ongoing benefits on an application for assistance dated January █ 2022. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill these requirements.

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that the Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct, and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

Respondent was an ongoing recipient of FAP benefits in June of 2022, when he was incarcerated in the [REDACTED]. No evidence was presented on the record that Respondent's son was capable of supporting himself while Respondent was in jail. The [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is an institution where meals are served as part of its normal operations. If Respondent had reported that neither he nor his son were living at their reported residence due to Respondent's incarceration, the Department would have closed his FAP benefits by the first benefit period after July 18, 2022.

Respondent received FAP benefits totaling $[REDACTED] from August 1, 2022, through September 30, 2022. Respondent was not eligible for any of those benefits. Therefore, Respondent received a $[REDACTED] overissuance of FAP benefits.

The Department's representative presented as a knowledgeable witness who provided a credible account of an investigation of a household consisting of an adult and a young child when the adult was incarcerated in jail.

Respondent acknowledged the duties and responsibilities of receiving FAP benefits on an application for assistance dated January [REDACTED] 2022. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill these requirements. It is the Department's practice to provide pamphlet material to eligible FAP recipients advising them of their duty to report changes of residence, including when someone leaves the household. The hearing record supports a finding that Respondent was provided with notice that he was required to report to the Department when he became incarcerated and when he was no longer living with his child.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has presented clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally withheld reporting his incarceration for the purposes of maintaining his eligibility for FAP benefits that he would not have been eligible for otherwise.

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group as long as the disqualified person lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) BAM 710 (January 1, 2018), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

The record evidence indicates that this is Respondent's first established IPV violation.

The Department has established an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).
2. Respondent did receive an overissuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits in the amount of $[REDACTED]
3. The Department is ORDERED to initiate recoupment procedures for the amount of $[REDACTED] in accordance with Department policy.
4. It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP) for a period of 12 months.
