HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

Upon the request for a hearing by the Department of Health and Human Services (Department), this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, and in accordance with Titles 7, 42 and 45 of the Code of Federal Regulation (CFR), particularly 7 CFR 273.16, and with Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130, and R 400.3178. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on January 10, 2024, from Lansing, Michigan. The Department was represented by Thomas Lilienthal, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG). Respondent did not appear at the hearing, and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e), Mich Admin Code R 400.3130(5), or Mich Admin Code R 400.3178(5).

ISSUES

1. Did Respondent receive an overissuance (OI) of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department is entitled to recoup?
2. Did the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV)?
3. Should Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP)?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On an application for assistance dated June [REDACTED] 2022, Respondent acknowledged her duties and responsibilities including the duty to report persons living in her household and all household income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Exhibit A, pp 10-19.

2. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that her June ■ 2022, application form was examined by or read to her, and, to the best of her knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Exhibit A, p 19.
3. Respondent reported on her June ■ 2022, application for assistance that she was married and employed but that the father of her child was not living in the home. Exhibit A, pp 11 and 16.
4. Department records indicate that during an eligibility interview conducted on July ■ 2022, Respondent reported that she was homeless and living with her son in a campground. Exhibit A, pp 20-26.
5. On July ■ 2022, the Department notified Respondent that she was eligible for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits as a household of two receiving earned income in the gross monthly amount of $■■■ Exhibit A, pp 27-31.
6. On a Renew Benefits Form received by the Department on April ■ 2022, Respondent acknowledged her duties and responsibilities including the duty to report persons living in her household and all household income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Exhibit A, pp 32-36.
7. Respondent reported on her April ■ 2022, Renew Benefits form that she was living with her child and working. Exhibit A, pp 32-36.
8. Department records indicate that Respondent reported to the Department that she was living with her husband, who is the father of her child, since December of 2022. Exhibit A, p 38.
9. Respondent's husband received earned income from employment from April 1, 2005, through May 19, 2023. Exhibit A, pp 49-57.
10. Respondent received Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits as a household of two totaling $■■■ from February 1, 2023, through May 31, 2023. Exhibit A, p 58.
11. On May 30, 2023, the Department notified Respondent that she had received a $■■■ overissuance of Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that the Department intended to recoup. Exhibit A, pp 38 and 69.
12. The Department's OIG filed a hearing request on September 1, 2023, to establish that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). Exhibit A, p 3.
13. On August 31, 2023, the Department sent Respondent an Intentional Program Violation Repayment Agreement (DHS-4350) with notice of a $■■■ overpayment. Exhibit A, pp 73-75.
14. On September 1, 2023, the Department sent Respondent a Request for Waiver of Disqualification Hearing (DHS-826). Exhibit A, pp 6-7.

15. This was Respondent's first established IPV.

16. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is funded under the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 through 7 USC 2036a. It is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 of the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1 et seq, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 through 400.3011.

The Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for the following cases:

- FAP trafficking OIs that are not forwarded to the prosecutor.
- Prosecution of welfare fraud or FAP trafficking is declined by the prosecutor for a reason other than lack of evidence, and
 - the total OI amount for the FIP, SDA, CDC, MA and FAP programs is $500 or more, or
 - the total OI amount is less than $500, and
 - the group has a previous IPV, or
 - the alleged IPV involves FAP trafficking, or
 - the alleged fraud involves concurrent receipt of assistance (see BEM 222), or
 - the alleged fraud is committed by a state/government employee.

Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual BAM 720 (October 1, 2017), pp 12-13.

Overissuance

An “overissuance” is an amount owed because of benefits that are overpaid, which the Department must establish and collect. 7 CFR 273.18(a). When a client group receives more benefits than it is entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. Department of Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) 700 (October 1, 2018), p 1.

On an application for assistance dated June █ 2022, Respondent acknowledged the duty to report persons living in her household and all household income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. Respondent acknowledged under penalties of perjury that her June █ 2022, application form was examined by or read to her, and, to the best of her knowledge, contained facts that were true and complete. Respondent reported on her June █ 2022, application for assistance that she was married and employed but that the father of her child was not living in the home. On July █ 2022, the Department notified Respondent that she was eligible for FAP benefits as a household of two receiving earned income in the gross monthly amount of $█

Later, Respondent would admit that her husband, the father of her child, had been living in the home. Respondent’s husband was employed, and his income was not applied to Respondent’s eligibility for FAP benefits. On May █ 2023, the Department notified Respondent that she had received a $█ overissuance of FAP benefits due to her husband’s unreported income. No evidence was presented on the record that Respondent filed a timely hearing request protesting the recoupment of FAP benefits. Therefore, the Department has established a $█ overissuance of FAP benefits.

Intentional Program Violation

An IPV requires that the Department establish by clear and convincing evidence that the client has intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing, or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility. BAM 720, p. 1; see also 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6).

The Department has the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV). The clear and convincing evidence standard, which is the most demanding standard applied in civil cases, is established where there is evidence so clear, direct, and weighty and convincing that a conclusion can be drawn without hesitancy of the truth of the precise facts in issue. Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102; 793 NW2d 533 (2010), reh den 488 Mich 860; 793 NW2d 559 (2010).

Clear and convincing proof is that which produces in the mind of the trier of fact a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing. Conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing even if contradicted. Id.

Respondent acknowledged the duties and responsibilities of receiving FAP benefits on an application for assistance dated June ■■■ 2022, including the duty to report persons living in the home and all household income. Respondent did not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to fulfill this requirement. It is the Department's practice to provide pamphlet material to eligible FAP recipients advising them of their duty to report all persons living in the home including spouses and children. The hearing record supports a finding that Respondent was provided with notice that she was required to report that she was living with her husband and her husband's income.

This Administrative Law Judge finds that the Department has presented clear and convincing evidence that Respondent intentionally reported that her husband was not living in the home for the purposes of becoming eligible for FAP benefits that she would not have been eligible for otherwise.

Disqualification

A court or hearing decision that finds a client committed IPV disqualifies that client from receiving program benefits. BAM 720, p. 15-16. A disqualified recipient remains a member of an active group if the disqualified person lives with them, and other eligible group members may continue to receive benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

Clients who commit an IPV are disqualified for a standard disqualification period except when a court orders a different period, or except when the OI relates to MA. BAM 720, p. 13. Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM) BAM 710 (January 1, 2018), p. 2. Clients are disqualified for periods of one year for the first IPV, two years for the second IPV, lifetime disqualification for the third IPV, and ten years for a FAP concurrent receipt of benefits. BAM 720, p. 16.

The record evidence indicates that this is Respondent's first established IPV violation.

The Department has established an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an Intentional Program Violation (IPV).
2. It is FURTHER ORDERED that Respondent be disqualified from the Food Assistance Program (FAP) for a period of 12 months.
