HEARING DECISION

On August 14, 2023, Petitioner, ██████████ requested a hearing to dispute a notice of overissuance. Following Petitioner's hearing request, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge pursuant to MCL 400.9, 7 CFR 273.15, and Mich Admin Code, R 792.11002. After due notice, a telephone hearing was held on November 8, 2023. Petitioner appeared and represented herself. Respondent, Department of Health and Human Services (Department), had Bernice Ray, Overissuance Establishment Analyst, appear as its representative. Neither party had any additional witnesses.

One exhibit was admitted into evidence during the hearing. A 70-page packet of documents provided by the Department was admitted collectively as the Department's Exhibit A.

ISSUE

Did the Department properly determine that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $1,418.00 for Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits that were overissued to her for the months of April 2019 through November 2019?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On January 8, 2019, the Department issued a notice of case action to Petitioner to notify her that she was approved for a monthly FAP benefit of $192.00 effective January 1, 2019, for a group size of one.

2. On February 1, 2019, Petitioner received her first paycheck from [REDACTED]
3. On February 7, 2019, Petitioner reported her employment at [REDACTED] to the Department, and Petitioner provided the Department with a copy of her paycheck stub.
4. The Department did not properly process Petitioner's reported change.
5. The Department continued to issue FAP benefits to Petitioner without considering her earned income.
6. The Department issued Petitioner a FAP benefit of $192.00 per month for each month from April 2019 through November 2019.
7. Petitioner had the following earnings from her employment at [REDACTED]
 - a. April 12, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - b. April 26, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - c. May 10, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - d. May 24, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - e. June 7, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - f. June 21, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - g. July 5, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - h. July 19, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - i. August 2, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - j. August 16, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - k. August 30, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - l. September 13, 2019, paid [REDACTED];
 - m. September 27, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - n. October 11, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - o. October 25, 2019, paid [REDACTED]
 - p. November 8, 2019, paid [REDACTED]; and
 - q. November 22, 2019, paid [REDACTED]

8. The Department updated Petitioner's case and processed the change she reported on February 7, 2019.
9. The Department recalculated Petitioner's FAP benefit amount based on the earned income that she received, and the Department determined that Petitioner was overissued a total of $1,418.00 in FAP benefits for the months of April 2019 through November 2019.
10. On August 8, 2023, the Department issued a notice of overissuance to Petitioner to notify her that she was overissued $1,418.00 in FAP benefits for the months of April 2019 through November 2019 due to an agency error.
11. Petitioner requested a hearing to dispute the notice of overissuance.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

In this case, the Department determined that it overissued FAP benefits to Petitioner because it did not properly budget Petitioner's household income. When a client receives more benefits than she was entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the overissuance. BAM 700 (October 1, 2018), p. 1. The overissuance amount is the amount of benefits in excess of the amount the client was eligible to receive. Id. at p. 2. Based on the evidence presented, the Department overissued FAP benefits to Petitioner.

For the months of April 2019 through November 2019, the Department issued Petitioner a FAP benefit of $192.00 per month. The Department issued these FAP benefits to Petitioner without budgeting Petitioner's income from employment. This caused the Department to issue Petitioner more FAP benefits than what she was eligible to receive. Based on Petitioner's income, Petitioner was only eligible to receive a FAP benefit of $15.00 per month for each month from April 2019 through November 2019. Thus, Petitioner was overissued a total of $1,418.00 for the months of April 2019 through November 2019.

Petitioner asserted that she should not be responsible for paying the overissuance because it was not her fault that she was overissued FAP benefits. A FAP overissuance that results from the Department's error must be pursued by the Department when the amount is greater than or equal to $250.00. BAM 705 (October 1, 2018), p. 1. Although Petitioner received an overissuance due to the Department's error, the Department acted in accordance with its policies when it pursued the overissuance because the amount involved was greater than or equal to $250.00.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with its policies and the applicable law when it determined that Petitioner owes the Department a debt of $1,418.00 for FAP benefits that were overissued to her for the months of April 2019 through November 2019.

IT IS ORDERED that the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
