6. On [REDACTED], 2022, Petitioner submitted a request for hearing disputing the Department's actions.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Department of Health and Human Services Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Department of Health and Human Services Reference Tables Manual (RFT), and Department of Health and Human Services Emergency Relief Manual (ERM).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 2036a and is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. The Department (formerly known as the Department of Human Services) administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10, the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1-.119b, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001-.3011.

In this case, Petitioner submitted an application for FAP benefits on [REDACTED] 2022. Petitioner was the only member of her FAP group and was enrolled in college full-time. On November 7, 2022, the Department denied Petitioner's FAP application, as she was an ineligible student.

A person is in student status if she is: age 18 through 49 and enrolled half-time or more in a: vocational, trade, business, or technical school that normally requires a high school diploma or an equivalency certificate, or a regular curriculum at a college or university that offers degree programs regardless of whether a diploma is required. BEM 245 (January 2018), p. 3-4. In order for a person in student status to be eligible, they must meet one of the following criteria: (i) receiving FIP; (ii) enrolled in an institution of higher education as a result of participation in a Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), a program under the Trade Readjustment Act or another state or local government employment and training program; (iii) physically or mentally unfit for employment; (iv) employed for at least an average of 20 hours per week and paid for such employment; (v) self-employed for at least an average of 20 hours per week and earning an average weekly income at least equivalent to the federal minimum wage multiplied by 20 hours; (vi) participating in a state or federally-funded work study program during the regular school year; (vii) providing more than half of the physical care of a group member under the age of six; (viii) providing more than half of the physical care of a group member age six through eleven and the local office has determined adequate child care is not available to enable the person to attend class and work at least 20 hours per week or participate in a state or federally-financed work study program during the school year; or (ix) a single parent enrolled full-time in an institution of higher education who cares for a dependent under age 12. BEM 245, p. 5. For the care of a child under age six, consider the student to be providing physical care as long as he or she claims primary responsibility for such care, even though another adult may be in the FAP group. BEM 245, p. 5.

The Consolidated appropriations act of 2021, temporarily expands student eligibility for students who have an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) of $0 in the current academic year based on the student's Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). BEM 245, p. 5. This exemption will remain effective until 30 days after the COVID-19 public health emergency is lifted. BEM 245, p. 5. The 2021-2022 FAFSA academic year covered courses from July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023. See: <https://studentaid.gov/help/school-year>. The COVID-19 public health emergency is currently still in effect.

At the hearing, Petitioner acknowledged that she was enrolled in school full-time and was not working more than 20 hours per week. Petitioner did receive student aid. At the hearing, Petitioner was unsure as to her EFC. Petitioner did not submit any evidence to establish that her EFC was 0. Therefore, Petitioner is an ineligible student, and the Department acted in accordance with policy when it denied Petitioner's FAP application.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, finds that the Department acted in accordance with Department policy when it denied Petitioner's FAP application. Accordingly, the Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
