The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On [REDACTED] 2024, Petitioner submitted a request for HHS. (Exhibit A; Testimony.)
2. At all times relevant to this proceeding, Petitioner was married to his spouse and his spouse was providing care. (Exhibit A; Testimony.)

4. On August 1, 2024, the Department sent Petitioner an Advance Negative Action Notice. The Notice indicated Petitioner's request for HHS would be denied. (Exhibit A; Testimony.)
5. On August 8, 2024, Petitioner called the Department and reported that he is married. Petitioner reported that he had previously been denied services after wanting his wife to be his provider, and at this time, he wanted someone other than his wife to be his provider. (Exhibit A; Testimony.)

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Medical Assistance Program is established pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act and is implemented by Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR). It is administered in accordance with state statute, the Social Welfare Act, the Administrative Code, and the State Plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act Medical Assistance Program.

Home Help Services (HHS) are provided to enable functionally limited individuals to live independently and receive care in the least restrictive, preferred settings. These activities must be certified by a physician and may be provided by individuals or by private or public agencies.

Adult Services Manual (ASM) 120, addresses responsible relatives:

Responsible Relatives

A responsible relative is defined as an individual's spouse or a parent of an unmarried child under age 18.

Activities of daily living (ADL) may be approved when the responsible relative is unavailable or unable to provide these services.

Note: Unavailable means absence from the home for an extended period due to employment, school or other legitimate reasons. The responsible relative must provide a work or school schedule to verify they are unavailable to provide care. Unable means the responsible person has disabilities of their own which prevent them from providing care. These disabilities must be documented and verified by a medical professional on the DHS-54A, Medical Needs form.

Do not approve shopping, laundry, or light housecleaning, when a responsible relative of the client resides in the home, unless they are unavailable or unable to provide these services. Document findings in the general Contacts in MiAIMS.

Example: Mrs. Smith is in need of home help services. Her spouse is employed and is out of the home Monday thru Friday from 7a.m. to 7p.m. The ASW would not approve hours for shopping, laundry or house cleaning as Mr. Smith is responsible for these tasks and is able to complete these tasks on the weekends.¹

The Department submitted evidence indicating the Petitioner was married and that there was zero documentation submitted to indicate the spouse was either unable or unavailable to provide care to the Petitioner.

As indicated above, ASM 120 defines a responsible relative as a person's spouse or a parent of an unmarried child under age 18. Petitioner's spouse meets the definition of a responsible relative, and no evidence was presented to the Department showing that Petitioner's spouse was unable or unavailable to provide care to Petitioner as of the date of action in this matter. Consequently, the Departments decision to deny HHS should be affirmed.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the above findings of fact and conclusions of law, finds that the Department properly denied Petitioner's HHS application based on the information available at the time of the denial notice.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The Department's decision is AFFIRMED.
