HEARING DECISION FOR INTENTIONAL PROGRAM VIOLATION

The Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS or the Department) requested a hearing alleging that Respondent [REDACTED] committed an intentional program violation (IPV) concerning state benefits. Pursuant to MDHHS' request and in accordance with MCL 400.9, 7 CFR 273.16, 42 CFR 431.230(b), and 45 CFR 235.110, and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130 and R 400.3178, this matter is before the undersigned Administrative Law Judge. After due notice, a hearing was held via telephone conference on July 31, 2025. Holly Borkowski, Regulation Agent with the Office of Inspector General (OIG), represented MDHHS. Respondent appeared and represented herself.

ISSUES

1. Did MDHHS establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an IPV concerning Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving benefits for FAP?
3. Did Respondent receive an overpayment (OP) of FAP benefits that MDHHS is entitled to recoup?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On March 28, 2020, Respondent applied for FAP benefits for herself. Respondent reported that she had no household income. Prior to submission of the application, Respondent was required to review all rights and responsibilities as a benefit recipient (Exhibit A, pp. 10-23).
2. On March 31, 2020, Respondent was interviewed by MDHHS as part of the application process. Rights and responsibilities as a benefit recipient were reviewed as part of the interview process (Exhibit A, pp. 24-25).
3. On March 31, 2020, MDHHS sent the Respondent a Notice of Case Action informing her that she was eligible for FAP benefits for a group size of one based upon [REDACTED] earned income and reminding her of the obligation to report changes in household circumstances to MDHHS within ten days. A blank Change Report form was provided with the Notice of Case Action to facilitate the reporting of any future changes to MDHHS timely (Exhibit A, pp. 26-33).

4. From June 3, 2020 through October 22, 2021, Respondent worked for [REDACTED] (Employer) (Exhibit A, pp. 34-37).
5. From September 1, 2020, through February 28, 2021, Respondent received [REDACTED] in FAP benefits (Exhibit A, pp. 39-40).
6. Respondent does not have an apparent physical or mental impairment that would limit the understanding or ability to accurately report employment or household income.
7. Respondent has no prior FAP IPV disqualifications.
8. On April 3, 2025, MDHHS' OIG filed a hearing request alleging that Respondent intentionally failed to report earned income from employment and as a result received FAP benefits from September 1, 2020, through February 28, 2021 (fraud period) that Respondent was ineligible to receive. OIG requested that Respondent repay [REDACTED] to MDHHS for FAP benefits that Respondent was ineligible to receive and that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of 12 months due to committing an IPV.
9. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

MDHHS policies are contained in the MDHHS Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT). The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is funded under the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 7 USC 2036a. It is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. MDHHS administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 of the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1 et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to R 400.3031.

Intentional Program Violation (IPV):

An IPV occurs when a recipient of MDHHS benefits intentionally made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts. 7 CFR 273.16(c)(1). Effective October 1, 2014, MDHHS's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases where (1) the total repayment amount sought from Respondent for all programs combined is $500 or more or (2) the total repayment amount sought from Respondent for all programs combined is less than $500 but the group has a previous IPV, the matter involves concurrent receipt of assistance, the IPV involves FAP trafficking, or the alleged fraud is committed by a state government employee. BAM 720 (October 2017), pp. 12-13.

25-012206

To establish an IPV, MDHHS must present clear and convincing evidence that the household member committed, and intended to commit, the IPV. 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6); BAM 720, p. 1. Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in “a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue.” Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102, 114-115; 793 NW2d 533 (2010); see also M Civ JI 8.01. Evidence may be uncontroverted and yet not be clear and convincing; conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing despite the fact that it has been contradicted. Smith at 115. The clear and convincing standard is “the most demanding standard applied in civil cases.” In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995). For an IPV based on inaccurate reporting, MDHHS policy also requires that the individual have been clearly and correctly instructed regarding the reporting responsibilities and have no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits the ability to understand or fulfill these reporting responsibilities. BAM 720, p. 1.

In this case, MDHHS alleges that Respondent committed an IPV based on failing to report employment income with the intention to fraudulently maintain or prevent a reduction in her FAP benefits. Earned income received by the client is considered in the calculation of a client’s FAP eligibility and amount of benefits. BEM 500 (July 2020); BEM 501 (January 2020), pp. 6-7; BEM 556 (January 2020), pp. 2-3; 7 CFR 273.9(a). FAP recipients who are not simplified reporters are required to report starting or stopping employment and changes in circumstance that potentially affect eligibility or benefit amount within ten days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. BAM 105 (July 2020), p. 12; 7 CFR 273.10(b)(1)(i). MDHHS then has ten days to process the change and, if it results in a decrease in benefits, it gives the client 12 days before the negative action impacts the benefits issued. BAM 220 (July 2020), pp. 7, 12.

Here, Respondent was required to review all rights and responsibilities as a benefit recipient when applying for FAP benefits on March 28, 2020 and when interviewed by MDHHS on March 31, 2020. On March 31, 2020, MDHHS sent the Respondent a Notice of Case Action informing her that she was eligible for FAP benefits for a group size of one, based upon [REDACTED] earned income, and reminding her of the obligation to report changes in household circumstances to MDHHS within ten days. A blank Change Report form was provided with the Notice of Case Action to facilitate the reporting of any future changes to MDHHS timely. From June 3, 2020 through October 22, 2021, Respondent worked for Employer. Respondent did not report this employment to MDHHS. Respondent appeared at the hearing and testified that she was struggling with mental health issues at the time and mistakenly failed to report this employment to MDHHS. While Respondent should have still reported this employment income, she did not misreport any information to MDHHS. Meaning, there was no written submission to MDHHS during the alleged fraud period in which Respondent failed to provide truthful information. A written misreporting of information is highly persuasive evidence of an intent to defraud consistent with an IPV. MDHHS did not present evidence of a written misreporting by Respondent. MDHHS also did not present evidence that they issued any correspondence to Respondent during the alleged fraud period that would have reminded her of the requirement to report income to MDHHS. MDHHS has failed to establish that Respondent intentionally withheld or misrepresented information for the purpose of establishing, maintaining, increasing, or preventing reduction of program benefits or eligibility once she began working for Employer. To find Respondent committed an IPV, the requisite intent that she failed to report in order to fraudulently obtain benefits must be clearly and convincingly proven by MDHHS. When evaluating an individual's intent to defraud, it is essential to consider their state of mind at the time of committing the action in question. Given Respondent's credible testimony, MDHHS failed to establish an intent to defraud by clear and convincing evidence. Thus, MDHHS did not establish an IPV by Respondent.

Therefore, MDHHS has not presented clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.

IPV Disqualification

An individual who is found pursuant to an IPV disqualification hearing to have committed a FAP IPV is disqualified from receiving benefits for the same program for 12 months for the first IPV, 24 months for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. 7 CFR 273.16(b)(1); BAM 720, p. 16. As discussed above, MDHHS has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV. Therefore, Respondent is not subject to a disqualification from receipt of FAP benefits.

Overpayment

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, MDHHS must attempt to recoup the OP as a recipient claim. 7 CFR 273.18(a)(2); BAM 700 (October 2018), pp. 1-2. The amount of a FAP OP is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. 7 CFR 273.18(c)(1); BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (October 2017), pp. 5-7. MDHHS calculates the OP total for each fraud period by calculating what Respondent's FAP budget would have been if her earned income from employment would have been included in the budget. MDHHS determined what Respondent's monthly benefit amount should have been if earned income was included in the FAP budget by using the income information received from the Work Number database (see Exhibit A, pp. 35-37). MDHHS then subtracts the correct benefit amount from the actual benefit amount to determine the OP amount.

In this case, MDHHS determined that had Respondent's income been included in the household budget, then her household would not have been eligible to receive FAP benefits during the period at issue. A review of Respondent's household income during the fraud period shows that, each month, the household had income in excess of the gross income limit for FAP eligibility. Since Respondent was not eligible to receive FAP benefits, all benefits issued during this time were overpaid. Therefore, since Respondent was issued [REDACTED] during the fraud period, MDHHS is entitled to recoup [REDACTED] in overpaid FAP benefits.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. MDHHS has not established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV.
2. Respondent is not subject to a 12-month disqualification from FAP benefits.
3. Respondent did receive an OP of FAP benefits in the amount of [REDACTED].

IT IS ORDERED that Respondent is not disqualified from FAP.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that MDHHS initiate recoupment and/or collection procedures in accordance with MDHHS policy for a FAP OP in the amount of [REDACTED], less any amounts already recouped/collected for the fraud period.
