After due notice, a hearing was held via telephone conference on September 15, 2025. Nicole Scholten, Regulation Agent of the Office of Inspector General (OIG), represented the Department.

Respondent did not appear at the hearing, and it was held in Respondent's absence pursuant to 7 CFR 273.16(e)(3)(i) and (e)(4); Mich Admin Code, R 400.3130(5); or Mich Admin Code, R 400.3178(5).

The Department's 57-page hearing packet was admitted into evidence as Exhibit A

ISSUES

1. Did the Department establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that Respondent committed an IPV concerning Food Assistance Program (FAP) benefits?
2. Should Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for 12 months?

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Administrative Law Judge, based on the competent, material, and substantial evidence on the whole record, finds as material fact:

1. On October 4, 2018, the Department received a completed application from Respondent for FAP benefits and State Emergency Relief (SER) assistance for himself. Respondent reported that he received unemployment compensation of [REDACTED] bi-weekly and had no other income. (Exhibit A, pp. 10 – 15).
2. On October 10, 2018, the Department interviewed Respondent for FAP benefits and SER assistance. Respondent confirmed that his sole source of income was unemployment compensation. The Department advised Respondent of his rights and reporting responsibilities. (Exhibit A, pp. 16 – 17).

3. On October 10, 2018, the Department sent Respondent a Notice of Case Action (NOCA) that approved Respondent for FAP benefits effective October 4, 2018, for a one-person FAP group based on [REDACTED] earned income and [REDACTED] unearned income. The NOCA also reminded Respondent of his responsibility to report changes in his income to the Department within 10 days and included a blank Change Report form. (Exhibit A, pp. 18 – 23).

4. As of April 5, 2019, Respondent was employed by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (Employer) and received his first weekly paycheck on that date. He remained continuously employed by Employer until at least September 28, 2019. (Exhibit A, pp. 39 – 43).

5. On July 5, 2019, the Department received a completed application for SER assistance from Respondent. Respondent reported that he was unemployed and had no income. (Exhibit A, pp. 24 – 28).

6. On July 12, 2019, the Department interviewed Respondent regarding his application for SER assistance. Respondent confirmed that he was unemployed and had no income. (Exhibit A, pp. 29 – 30).

7. On September 10, 2019, the Department received a completed redetermination application for FAP benefits from Respondent for himself and his living partner, [REDACTED] (LP). Respondent did not report any income for himself or LP on the application. (Exhibit A, pp. 31 – 32).

8. On September 12, 2019, the Department retrieved a Consolidated Income Inquiry (CI) that reported Respondent:

- Received unemployment compensation from September 29, 2018 to November 10, 2018,
- Had earnings from employment with [REDACTED] in the third quarter of 2018, and
- Had earnings from employment with Employer in the second quarter of 2019.

(Exhibit A, pp. 33 – 37).

9. Respondent was aware of the responsibility to report changes in income to the Department within 10 days, and to provide truthful information to the Department on applications. (Exhibit A, pp. 21 – 23).

10. Respondent is not known to have had an apparent physical or mental impairment that would have limited his understanding or ability to report changes in his household income to the Department within 10 days, and to provide truthful information to the Department on applications. (Exhibit A, p. 13).

11. Respondent has no prior FAP IPV disqualifications.
12. From June 1, 2019 to September 30, 2019, Respondent received [REDACTED] in FAP benefits. (Exhibit A, p. 44).
13. On October 4, 2023, the Department established that Respondent received an overpayment (OP) of FAP benefits from June 1, 2019 to September 30, 2019, in the amount of [REDACTED]. (Exhibit A, p. 54).
14. On July 16, 2025, the Department's OIG filed a hearing request alleging that Respondent intentionally failed to report his employment and income, and as a result received FAP benefits from June 1, 2019 to September 30, 2019 (fraud period), that he was ineligible to receive. OIG requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of 12 months due to committing an IPV.
15. A notice of hearing was mailed to Respondent at the last known address and was not returned by the United States Postal Services as undeliverable.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Department policies are contained in the Department's Bridges Administrative Manual (BAM), Bridges Eligibility Manual (BEM), Adult Services Manual (ASM), and Reference Tables Manual (RFT).

The Food Assistance Program (FAP) [formerly known as the Food Stamp program] is funded under the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) established by the Food and Nutrition Act of 2008, as amended, 7 USC 2011 to 7 USC 2036a. It is implemented by the federal regulations contained in 7 CFR 273. MDHHS administers FAP pursuant to MCL 400.10 of the Social Welfare Act, MCL 400.1 et seq., and Mich Admin Code, R 400.3001 to R 400.3031.

The Department alleges Respondent committed an IPV because he intentionally failed to report a change in his income to the Department within ten days, or to provide truthful information to the Department; and received an OP of FAP benefits as a result. Respondent has no prior IPVs, and the Department requested that Respondent be disqualified from receiving FAP benefits for a period of 12 months for this first IPV.

Intentional Program Violation

An IPV occurs when a recipient of the Department benefits intentionally made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed, or withheld facts. 7 CFR 273.16(c)(1); BAM 720 (June 2024), p. 1. Effective October 1, 2014, the Department's OIG requests IPV hearings for cases where (1) the total repayment amount sought from Respondent for all programs combined is $500 or more or (2) the total repayment amount sought from Respondent for all programs combined is less than $500 but the group has a previous IPV, the matter involves concurrent receipt of assistance, the IPV involves FAP trafficking, or the alleged fraud is committed by a state government employee. BAM 720, pp. 7 – 8.

To establish an IPV, the Department must present clear and convincing evidence that the household member committed, and intended to commit, the IPV. 7 CFR 273.16(e)(6); BAM 720, p. 2. Clear and convincing evidence is evidence sufficient to result in “a firm belief or conviction as to the truth of the precise facts in issue.” Smith v Anonymous Joint Enterprise, 487 Mich 102, 114-115; 793 NW2d 533 (2010); see also M Civ JI 8.01. Evidence may be uncontested and yet not be clear and convincing; conversely, evidence may be clear and convincing despite the fact that it has been contradicted. Smith at 115. The clear and convincing standard is “the most demanding standard applied in civil cases.” In re Martin, 450 Mich 204, 227; 538 NW2d 399 (1995). For an IPV based on inaccurate reporting, Department policy also requires that the individual have been clearly and correctly instructed regarding the reporting responsibilities and have no apparent physical or mental impairment that limits the ability to understand or fulfill the reporting responsibilities. BAM 720, p. 2.

Department clients must report changes in income to the Department within 10 days of receiving the first payment reflecting the change. 7 CFR 273.12(a); BAM 105 (January 2018, January 2019), pp. 11 – 12. Clients must also completely and truthfully answer all questions on forms and in interviews. BAM 105, p. 9.

Here, the Department alleged that Respondent committed an IPV when he intentionally failed to report a change in his income to the Department within ten days, or to provide truthful information to the Department on subsequent benefit applications. The evidence established that Respondent became employed and started receiving income from Employer in April 2019, and continued working for Employer until at least September 28, 2019. There was no evidence that Respondent reported his employment or income to the Department after he started working for Employer. The evidence also established that Respondent completed two applications for assistance while he was working for Employer and that he failed to disclose his employment or income on either of those applications.

Despite notice of the hearing being sent to Respondent at his current address, he did not appear at the hearing to dispute the Department’s evidence or testimony.

In light of Respondent’s failure to disclose his employment and income to the Department when he submitted two applications for assistance while he was working for Employer, the Department did establish by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent’s failure to report when he became employed and earned income was intentional and for the purpose of maintaining or preventing reduction of FAP benefits or eligibility. Therefore, the Department has established that Respondent committed an IPV.

IPV Disqualification

An individual who is found, pursuant to an IPV disqualification hearing, to have committed a FAP IPV is disqualified from receiving benefits for the same program for 12 months for the first IPV, 24 months for the second IPV, and lifetime for the third IPV. 7 CFR 273.16(b)(1); BAM 720, pp. 11 – 12.

As discussed above, the Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV. Respondent did not have any prior IPVs. Therefore, Respondent is subject to a 12-month disqualification from receipt of FAP benefits.

Overpayment

When a client group receives more benefits than entitled to receive, the Department must attempt to recoup the OP as a recipient claim. 7 CFR 273.18(a)(2); BAM 700 (June 2024), p. 1. The amount of a FAP OP is the benefit amount the client actually received minus the amount the client was eligible to receive. 7 CFR 273.18(c)(1); BAM 720, p. 8; BAM 715 (June 2024), pp. 4 – 6; BAM 705 (June 2024), p. 5. In this case, a FAP OP amount was previously established by the Department and was not at issue.

DECISION AND ORDER

The Administrative Law Judge, based upon the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and for the reasons stated on the record, if any, concludes that:

1. The Department has established by clear and convincing evidence that Respondent committed an IPV of FAP.
2. Respondent is subject to a 12-month disqualification from FAP.

IT IS ORDERED that Respondent be personally disqualified from FAP for a period of 12 months.
