R 408.9034 Assessment of exemplary damages.

Rule 34. (1) The department shall order an employer who has violated section 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, or 8 of the act to pay exemplary damages to the employee in either of the following situations:

- (a) If the employer was previously found to have violated the same section of the act against the same employee at any time within 12 months before the occurrence of the violation.
 - (b) If the department determines that the act was deliberately and knowingly violated.
- (2) Exemplary damages may be assessed at not more than twice the amount of wages and fringe benefits ordered due and shall be paid to the employee.

History: 1982 AACCS.

R 408.9035 Payment of wages by payroll debit card; conditions.

Rule 35. Pursuant to section 6 of the act, an employer or agent of an employer may use a payroll debit card to pay wages to an employee, if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) The employee can obtain payment of his or her wages in full, when they are due and payable.
- (b) Prior to the issuance of a payroll debit card to an employee, the employer shall provide to the employee a written notice of all of the following:
 - (i) The terms and conditions of the payroll debit card.
 - (ii) Disclosure of fees that may be assessed by the card issuer.
 - (iii) Disclosure that additional fees may be assessed by third parties through use of a payroll debit card in addition to fees assessed by the card issuer.
- (c) If a payroll debit card is used, then the cardholder, not the issuer or the bank, shall possess ownership of the funds. Neither the issuer nor the bank shall retain a reversionary interest in the funds. The reversal of a deposit of wages made to a payroll debit card account in error is not considered reversionary when it involves any of the following:
 - (i) A credit made to the wrong employee account.
 - (ii) A duplicate credit made to an employee account.
 - (iii) A credit that differs from the amount in the transmittal instructions.
 - (iv) A correction as described in section 7(4) of the act, being MCL 408.477(4).
- (d) If an employer deposits wages into a pooled account accessible to an employee using a payroll debit card, the employer shall maintain records of each deposit sent to the card issuer for that account showing the amount of wages deposited for each employee and the date of the deposit. In addition, each cardholder's ownership interest in the funds deposited shall be indicated on records maintained by the card issuer, the depository institution's deposit account, or a third party.
